The Sound of Whales David Charles MacLean, 1996 The Sound of Whales is a lyric comedy about language our obsessive reliance upon it and how linear thought can inhibit understanding David MacLean s play has its roots in his personal experience in dealing with governmental educational and medical bureaucracies The frustration the playwright expresses toward these institutions is balanced by the love and devotion a father feels for his son The Sound of Whales is at once tender and angry intimate and universal Robert Garfat from A Director s Analysis Praise for The Sound of Whales ambitious poetic and imaginative with moments of striking honesty The Vancouver Sun draws picture after picture in its attempt to communicate the ineffable The Georgia Straight Carbon Play Robert William Falls, 2017-10-10 An insider s look at the complex inspiring and surprisingly entertaining world of international negotiations technology and diplomacy relating to the carbon industry environmental management and climate mitigation Carbon Play follows Robert Falls s unique and extraordinary journey in the worlds of academia politics and corporate big energy With a career that began in marine biology and fisheries management Robert became a respected environmental professional dealing with national energy and climate policies frequently meeting with renowned thinkers such as Freeman Dyson Arthur C Clarke David Suzuki Patrick Moore and Al Gore in a quest to deal with the gaping chasms between climate science political governance and global energy interests From his position at the crossroads of science the energy industry the environmental movement government policy and carbon trading Robert Falls has written 15 entertaining and enlightening stories that will be enjoyed by those with an interest in the environment who seek fresh perspectives and insights not normally found in books dealing with climate change or environmental issues The Empty Sea Ilaria Perissi, Ugo Bardi, 2021-02-12 The Blue Economy is used to describe all of the economic activities related to the sea with a special emphasis on sustainability Traditional activities such as fisheries but also undersea mining tourism and scientific research are included as well as the phenomenal growth of aquaculture during the past decade All of these activities and the irresistible prospect of another new frontier has led to enthusiastic and most likely overenthusiastic assessments of the possibilities to exploit the sea to feed the world provide low cost energy become a new source of minerals and other future miracles This book makes sense of these trends and of the future of the blue economy by following our remote ancestors who gradually discovered the sea and its resources describing the so called fisherman s curse or why fishermen have always been poor explaining why humans tend to destroy the resources on which we depend and assessing the realistic expectations for extracting resources from the sea Although the sea is not so badly overexploited as the land our demands on ecosystem services are already above the oceans sustainability limits Some new ideas including fishing down for untapped resources such as plankton could lead to the collapse of the entire marine ecosystem How Neanderthals crossed the sea in canoes how it was possible for five men on a small boat to kill a giant whale what kind of oil the virgins of the Gospel put into their lamps how a professor of mathematics Vito Volterra discovered the equations of fishing why it has become so easy to be stung by a jellyfish while swimming in the sea and how to play Moby Dick a simple board game that simulates the overexploitation of natural resources are just some of the questions that you will be able to answer after reading this engaging and insightful book about the rapidly expanding relationship between humanity and the sea

WHALE ATTACK TOM Bennett ,2015-05-05 Yachts sailing the oceans are regularly sunk by Whales Lives at sea are at risk and it is an increasing problem This book explores the facts and gives a few tips on how to avoid Whales when racing or cruising the oceans and how to minimize the event of Whales attacking your vessel Listen

Michel Faber,2023-11-28 I m not here to change your mind about Dusty Springfield or Shostakovich or Tupac Shakur or synthpop I m here to change your mind about your mind There are countless books on music with much analysis given to musicians bands eras and or genres But rarely does a book delve into what s going on inside us when we listen Michel Faber explores two big questions how do we listen to music and why do we listen to music To answer these questions he considers a range of factors which includes age illness the notion of cool commerce the dichotomy between good and bad taste and much more From the award winning author of The Crimson Petal and the White and Under the Skin this idiosyncratic and philosophical book reflects Michel Faber s lifelong obsession with music of all kinds Listen will change your relationship with the heard world

Postdigital Play and Global Education Kerryn Dixon,Karin Murriss,Joanne Peers,Theresa Giorza,Chanique Lawrence,2024-09-24 Postdigital Play and Global Education Reconfiguring Research is a re turn to a large scale international project on children s digital play Adopting postqualitative and posthumanist theories research practices are reconfigured all the way down from what counts as data tools instruments transcription research sites researchers to notions of responsibility and accountability in qualitative research Through a series of vignettes involving complex human and more than human collaborators e g GoPros octopus avatars diaries sackball LEGO bricks the authors challenge who and what can be playful and creative across contexts in the global north and global south The diffractive methodology enacted interrupts Western developmental notions of agency that are dominant in research involving young children The concept of postdigital offers fresh opportunities to disrupt dominant understandings of children's play Play emerges as an enigmatic and shape shifting human and more than human agentic force that operates beyond digital non digital online offline binaries By attuning to race gender age and language invisible and colonising aspects of postdigital worldings the authors show how global education research can be reimagined through a posthumanist decentering of children without erasure Postdigital Play and Global Education puts into practice Karen Barad's agential realism but also a range of postdevelopmental and posthumanist writings from diverse fields The book will be of particular interest to researchers looking for guidance to enact agential realist and posthumanist philosophies in research involving young children

Resonant Matter Lutz Koepnick, 2020-12-10 In Resonant Matter Lutz Koepnick considers contemporary sound and installation art as a unique laboratory of hospitality amid inhospitable times Inspired by Ragnar Kjartansson's nine channel video installation The Visitors 2012 the book explores resonance the ability of objects to be affected by the vibrations of other objects as a model of art's fleeting promise to make us coexist with things strange and other In a series of nuanced readings Koepnick follows the echoes of distant unexpected and unheard sounds in twenty first century art to reflect on the attachments we pursue to sustain our lives and the walls we need to tear down to secure possible futures The book's nine chapters approach The Visitors from ever different conceptual angles while bringing it into dialogue with the work of other artists and musicians such as Lawrence Abu Hamdan Guillermo Galindo Mischa Kuball Philipp Lachenmann Alvin Lucier Teresa Margolles Carsten Nicolai Camille Norment Susan Philipsz David Rothenberg Juliana Snapper and Tanya Tagaq With this book Koepnick situates resonance as a vital concept of contemporary art criticism and sound studies His analysis encourages us not only to expand our understanding of the role of sound in art of sound art but to attune our critical encounter with art to art's own resonant thinking
