Territorial Ambitions And The Gardens Of Versailles:

Territorial Ambitions and the Gardens of Versailles Chandra Mukerji, 1997-09-25 In seventeenth century France land took on new importance for the practice of politics and rituals of court life In her major new book Chandra Mukerji highlights the connections between the two seemingly disparate activities of engineering and garden design She shows how at Versailles in particular the royal park showcased French skills in using nature and art to design a distinctively French landscape and create a naturalized political territoriality She challenges the association of state power with social and legal structures alone and demonstrates the importance for Louis XIV and his state of a controlled physical site a demarcated French territory within the wider European geo political continent

Modernity Reimagined: An Analytic Guide Chandra Mukerji, 2016-12-19 Winner of the American Sociological Association's Distinguished Book Award in 2012 Chandra Mukerji offers with this remarkable new book an explanation of the birth and subsequent proliferation of the many strands in the braid of modernity The journey she takes us on is dedicated to teasing those strands apart using forms of cultural analysis from the social sciences to approach history with fresh eyes Faced with the problem of trying to understand what is hardest to see the familiar she gains analytic distance and clarity by juxtaposing cultural analysis with history asking how modernity began and how people conjured into existence the world we now recognize as modern Part I describes the genesis of key modern social forms the modern self communities of strangers the modern state and the industrial world economy Part II focuses on modern social types races genders and childhood Part III focuses on some of the cultural artifacts and activities of the contemporary world that people have invented and used to cope with the burdens of self making and to react against the broken promises of modern discourse and the silent injuries of material modernism Beautifully illustrated with over 100 color photographs in its 10 chapters MODERNITY REIMAGINED is not just an explanation an analysis of how modern life came to be it is also a model for how to do cultural thinking about today's world

Orientalism in Early Modern France Ina Baghdiantz McCabe, 2008-07-15 Francis I's ties with the Ottoman Empire marked the birth of court sponsored Orientalism in France Under Louis XIV French society was transformed by cross cultural contacts with the Ottomans India Persia China Siam and the Americas The consumption of silk cotton cloth spices coffee tea china gems flowers and other luxury goods transformed daily life and gave rise to a new discourse about the Orient which in turn shaped ideas about economy and politics specifically absolutism and the monarchy An original account of the ancient regime this book highlights France's use of the exotic and analyzes French discourse about Islam and the Orient

A Guide to Spatial History Konrad Lawson, Riccardo Bavaj, Bernhard Struck, 2022-01-07 This guide provides an overview of the thematic areas analytical aspects and avenues of research which together form a broader conversation around doing spatial history Spatial history is not a field with clearly delineated boundaries For the most part it lacks a distinct unambiguous scholarly identity It can only be thought of in relation to other typically more established fields Indeed one of the most valuable utilities of spatial history is its capacity to facilitate conversations across those fields Consequently it must be discussed in relation to a variety of historiographical contexts Each of these have their own intellectual genealogies institutional settings and conceptual path dependencies With this in mind this guide surveys the following areas territoriality infrastructure and borders nature environment and landscape city and home social space and political protest spaces of knowledge spatial imaginaries cartographic representations and historical GIS research Envisioning Landscapes, Making Worlds Stephen Daniels, Dydia DeLyser, J. Nicholas Entrikin, Doug Richardson, 2012-03-15 There has been a remarkable resurgence in the past decade of intellectual interplay between geography and the humanities in both academic and public circles Terminology and concepts such as space place landscape mapping and geography are becoming pervasive as conceptual frameworks and core metaphors in recent publications by humanities scholars and well known writers Envisioning Landscapes Making Worlds examines the depth and complexity of human meaning invested in maps attached to landscapes and embedded in the spaces and places of modern life The clashing and blending of cultures caused by globalization and the new technologies that profoundly alter human environmental experience suggest new geographical narratives and representations that are explored here by a multidisciplinary group of authors With contributions from leading scholars this text is essential reading for scholars and students seeking to understand the new synergies and interconnectedness of geography and the humanities

Scripturalizing the Human Vincent L. Wimbush, 2015-07-16 Scripturalizing the Human is a transdisciplinary collection of essays that reconceptualizes and models scriptural studies as a critical comparative set of practices with broad ramifications for scholars of religion and biblical studies This critical historical and ethnographic project is focused on scriptures scripturalization scripturalizing as shorthand for the psycho cultural and socio political work we make language do for and to us Each essay focuses on an instance of or situation involving such work engaging with the Bible Book of Mormon Bhagavata Purana and other sacred texts artifacts and practices in order to explore historical and ongoing constructions of the human Contributors use the category of scriptures understood not simply as texts but as freighted shorthand for the dynamics and ultimate politics of language as tools for self illumination and self analysis The significance of the collection lies in the window it opens to the rich and complex view of the highs and lows of human un making as it establishes the connections between a seemingly basic and apolitical religious category and a set of larger social cultural phenomena and dynamics

Mapping Discord Jeffrey N. Peters, 2004 Mapping Discord examines a series of allegorical maps published in France during the seventeenth century that cast in spatial terms a number of heated aesthetic and social debates It discusses the convergence of map making and literary creation in the context of early modern cartographic practice and demonstrates that the unique language of allegorical cartography raises important theoretical questions about the relations between rationalist discourses of science and the figural designs of imaginative writing In detailed analyses of the imaginary maps that appeared in seventeenth century novels and stories as well as of maps atlases and geographic treatises produced by professional scholars and engineers of the period Mapping Discord considers the ideological structure and uses of cartographic language and argues that allegorical maps have much to tell us about the potential capacity of every map to operate as a visual metaphor for power Illustrated Jeffrey N Peters is Associate Professor of French at the University of Kentucky

Structures of Memory Jennifer A. Jordan, 2006 Structures of Memory turns to the landscape of contemporary Berlin particularly places marked by the presence of the Nazi regime in order to understand how some places of great cruelty or great heroism are forgotten by all but eyewitnesses while others become the site of public ceremonies museums or commemorative monuments Does War Make States? Lars Bo Kaspersen, Jeppe Strandsbjerg, 2017-03-02 This engaging volume scrutinises the causal relationship between warfare and state formation using Charles Tilly's work as a foundation

The Perraults Oded Rabinovitch, 2018-11-15 In The Perraults Oded Rabinovitch takes the fascinating eponymous literary and scientific family as an entry point into the complex and rapidly changing world of early modern France Today the Perraults are best remembered for their canonical fairy tales such as Cinderella and Puss in Boots most often attributed to Charles Perrault one of the brothers While the writing of fairy tales may seem a frivolous enterprise it was in fact linked to the cultural revolution of the seventeenth century which paved the way for the scientific revolution the rise of national literatures and the early Enlightenment Rabinovitch argues that kinship networks played a crucial yet unexamined role in shaping the cultural and intellectual ferment of the day which in turn shaped kinship and the social history of the family Through skillful reconstruction of the Perraults careers and networks Rabinovitch portrays the world of letters as a means of social mobility He complicates our understanding of prominent institutions such as the Academy of Sciences Versailles and the salons as well as the very notions of authorship and court capitalism The Perraults shows us that institutions were not simply rigid entities embodying or defining intellectual or literary styles such as Cartesianism empiricism or the purity of the French language Rather they emerge as nodes that connect actors intellectual projects family strategies and practices of writing
