Territorial Management Of Ethnic Conflict:

The Territorial Management of Ethnic Conflict John Coakley, 2004-08-02 The object of this book is to look at the manner in which states attempt to cope with ethnic conflict through territorial approaches This revised edition has new chapters covering Northern Ireland South Africa and Yugoslavia Special Issue on the Territorial Management of Ethnic Conflict John Coakley, 1993 Ethnic Conflict in Developing Societies Ann Marie Bissessar, 2017-06-14 This book examines the experience of post colonial territories and their attempts to manage ethnic communities within their countries The study focuses on Trinidad and Tobago Guyana Suriname and Fiji This project looks at the mechanisms which vary from legislation to political structures systems and institutions that have been introduced to allow for greater integration by these communities and assesses their strengths and weaknesses The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy John Gaffar La Guerre, 2017-01-03 The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy A Global Perspective argues that ethnic conflict increases or decreases in relation to changes in the social structure and the location and distribution of political power Ethnic grievances derive from lack of access to valued resources and elites play a crucial role in allocating those resources This book examines the experiences of five countries with a history of ethnic conflict former Yugoslavia Bosnia Herzegovina Guyana Trinidad and Tobago and the United States It finds that in many cases solutions adopted to mitigate ethnic conflict have unintended consequences Often supposed solutions confuse cause and effect and in fact worsen ethnic conflict Attempts to address identity issues by pandering to them often led to further ethnic demands This book argues that based on the experiences of the countries under examination the best course is to adopt policies that encourage alliances between and among ethnic groups The Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell, Stefan Wolff, 2016-01-22 A definitive global survey of the interaction of ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends rigorous theoretically grounded analysis with empirically rich illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today Fully updated for the second edition the book includes a new section which offers detailed analyses of contemporary cases of conflict such as in Ukraine Kosovo the African Great Lakes region and in the Kurdish areas across the Middle East thus providing accessible examples that bridge the gap between theory and practice The contributors offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a particular place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed The Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain a better insight into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegration of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences the genocide in Rwanda and the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of their prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses

Federalism and Ethnic Conflict Regulation in India and Pakistan K. Adeney, 2016-01-12 Katharine Adeney demonstrates that institutional design is the most important explanatory variable in understanding the different intensity and types of conflict in the two countries rather than the role of religion Adeney examines the extent to which previous constitutional choices explain current day conflicts Facing Ethnic Conflicts Andreas Wimmer, 2004 Ethnic conflict is the major form of mass political violence in the world today and it has been since World War II Dramatic acts of terrorism and calculated responses to them may distract the attention of policymakers and the public but ethnic and nationalist conflict continues to pose the greatest challenge to peace and security across the globe Causes of such conflict and ideas about how to address it are hotly debated in the literature that has emerged over the past fifteen years This volume offers a unique overview of research and policy approaches to ethnic conflicts It is the first book to bring together experienced policymakers and key scholars from all disciplines They debate how to best understand the rise and escalation of ethnic conflict assess different strategies for peacemaking mediation and reconciliation and evaluate the prospects for conflict management through institutional design In contrast with a more enthusiastic assessment of the willingness and capacity to successfully intervene in ethnic conflict this volume documents the new realism that has emerged over the past decade It recognizes the complex and protracted nature of such conflicts and demands a multifaceted case by case approach sustained by long term political engagement Published in co operation with the Center for Development Research University of Bonn Pathways from Ethnic Conflict John Coakley, 2013-09-13 The book begins with an agenda setting introduction which will provide an overview of the central question being addressed such as the circumstances associated with the move towards a political settlement the parameters of this settlement and the factors that have assisted in bringing it about The remaining contributions will focus on a range of cases selected for their diversity and their capacity to highlight the full gamut of political approaches to conflict resolution The cases vary in the intensity of the conflict from Belgium where it is potential rather than actual to Sri Lanka where it has come to a recent violent conclusion in the geopolitical relationship between the competing groups from Cyprus where they are sharply segregated geographically to Northern Ireland where they are intermingled in the extent to which a stable constitutional accommodation has been reached ranging from the Basque Country with a large range of unresolved problems to South Africa which has achieved a significant level of institutional stability This book ranges over the world's major geopolitical zones including Asia the Middle East Africa and Europe and will be of interest to practitioners in the field of international security This book was published as a special issue of Nationalism and Ethnic Politics Conflict Management in Divided Societies Stefan Wolff, Christalla Yakinthou, 2013-03 This textbook takes a multi perspective approach to the study of conflict management in divided societies The philosophies underpinning constitutional design are clearly explained including power sharing centripetalism power dividing and territorial self governance The actors and processes involved and the practicalities of the settlement process are covered in conceptual and theoretical contributions that include the evolution of diplomacy in peacemaking The book ends with empirical case studies that explore the realities on the ground by specialists drawing on their experience of working in conflict zones

The International Spread of Ethnic Conflict David A. Lake, Donald Rothchild, 2020-10-06 The wave of ethnic conflict that has recently swept across parts of Eastern Europe the former Soviet Union and Africa has led many political observers to fear that these conflicts are contagious Initial outbreaks in such places as Bosnia Chechnya and Rwanda if not contained appear capable of setting off epidemics of catastrophic proportions In this volume David Lake and Donald Rothchild have organized an ambitious sophisticated exploration of both the origins and spread of ethnic conflict one that will be useful to policymakers and theorists alike The editors and contributors argue that ethnic conflict is not caused directly by intergroup differences or centuries old feuds and that the collapse of the Soviet Union did not simply uncork ethnic passions long suppressed They look instead at how anxieties over security competition for resources breakdown in communication with the government and the inability to make enduring commitments lead ethnic groups into conflict and they consider the strategic interactions that underlie ethnic conflict and its effective management How why and when do ethnic conflicts either diffuse by precipitating similar conflicts elsewhere or escalate by bringing in outside parties How can such transnational ethnic conflicts best be managed Following an introduction by the editors which lays a strong theoretical foundation for approaching these questions Timur Kuran Stuart Hill Donald Rothchild Colin Cameron Will H Moore and David R Davis examine the diffusion of ideas across national borders and ethnic alliances Without disputing that conflict can spread James D Fearon Stephen M Saideman Sandra Halperin and Paula Garb argue that ethnic conflict today is primarily a local phenomenon and that it is breaking out in many places simultaneously for similar but largely independent reasons Stephen D Krasner Daniel T Froats Cynthia S Kaplan Edmond J Keller Bruce W Jentleson and I William Zartman focus on the management of transnational ethnic conflicts and emphasize the importance of domestic confidence building measures international intervention and preventive diplomacy
