Terrorism And Violence In Southeast Asia Transnational Challenges To States And Regional Stability:

Terrorism and Violence in Southeast Asia Paul J. Smith, 2015-03-26 This timely work examines the scale and root causes of terrorism across Southeast Asia including the role of al Qaeda's ascendancy in the region. It begins with an overview of the analytical and theoretical framework for discussing the subject. Individual chapters then examine terrorist activities from both functional and country-specific perspectives. The book traces fundamental linkages between terrorism and security issues such as illegal immigration, narcotics trafficking, and other criminal activity. In addition, it considers the issue of convergence, the growing connection between criminal groups and terrorism, and how this may facilitate future violence. Written by a range of experts in the field, the individual chapters reflect a variety of perspectives. The contributions fall into two broad categories: chapters that directly address terrorism, the groups, their ideologies, their modus operandi, their origins, and state responses to them; and chapters that address the enabling environment that exists in Southeast Asia, the role of transnational crime, porous borders, convergence between terrorism and crime.

Political Violence in Southeast Asia since 1945 Eve Monique Zucker, Ben Kiernan, 2021-04-18 This book examines postwar waves of political violence that affected six Southeast Asian countries: Indonesia, Burma, Myanmar, Cambodia, Thailand, the Philippines, and Vietnam, from the wars of independence in the mid-twentieth century to the recent Rohingya genocide. Featuring cases not previously explored and offering fresh insights into more familiar cases, the chapters cover a range of topics including the technologies of violence, the politics of fear, inclusion and exclusion, justice and ethics, repetitions of mass violence, events, impunity, law, ethnic and racial killings, crimes against humanity, and genocide. The book delves into the violence that has reverberated across the region, spurred by local and global politics and ideologies, through the examination of such themes as identity ascription and formation, existential and ontological questions, collective memories of violence, and social and political transformation. In our current era of global social and political transition, the volume's case studies provide an opportunity to consider potential repercussions and outcomes of various political and ideological positionings and policies. Enhancing our understanding of the technologies, techniques, motives, causes, consequences, and connections between violent episodes in the Southeast Asian cases, the book raises key questions for the study of mass violence worldwide.

Autonomy and Armed Separatism in South and Southeast Asia Michelle Ann Miller, 2012 Armed separatist insurgencies have created a real dilemma for many national governments: how much freedom to grant aggrieved minorities without releasing territorial sovereignty over the nation-state. This book examines different approaches that have been taken by seven states in South and Southeast Asia to try and resolve this dilemma through various offers of autonomy. Providing new insights into the conditions under which autonomy arrangements exacerbate or alleviate the problem of armed separatism, this comprehensive book includes in-depth analysis of the circumstances that lead men and women to take up arms in an effort to remove themselves from the state's borders by creating their own independent polity.

Flashpoints in the War on Terrorism Derek S. Reveron, Jeffrey

Stevenson Murer,2013-05-13 This volume offers a comprehensive overview of international political violence by bringing together foreign policy experts on several regions who examine conflicts in the Fertile Crescent the Balkans the Post Soviet Region the Himalayas Southeast Asia and sub Saharan Africa With cogent assessments of civil conflicts that threaten to be part of a global jihad each chapter both dissects the historical roots and socio economic causes that catalyze terrorism in those areas as well as posits ways for the United States to meet the myriad of foreign policy challenges posed by the growing threat of contemporary international terrorism

Contemporary Radical Islam as a Consequence of Traditional Legacies and Globalization? Tonya M. Klempp,2006 The most recent wave of Islamic revivalism began in the second half of the twentieth century as a nonviolent movement of expressing ideological differences and discontent with the political economic and social condition among Muslims and inspired a reformation of the Muslim identity Today contemporary radical Islam with militancy and terrorist tactics as its cornerstone has all but overshadowed the call for a nonviolent struggle and has permeated several internal conflicts across the globe The Muslim separatist movement in the southern Philippines is one such conflict Following decades of discontent and sporadic violence armed conflict broke out in late 1972 when the Moro National Liberation Front MNLF launched coordinated attacks against the government Following a failed peace agreement in 1976 divisions began to form within the MNLF and in 1984 the Moro Islamic Liberation Front MILF was established The MILF as the name indicates placed more emphasis on Islam In 1991 the radical Abu Sayyaf group ASG broke off from the MNLF claiming as its main purpose the establishment of an Islamic state By the mid 1990s what had originated as a nationalistic struggle advocating the concept of the Moro identity had evolved and produced two increasingly radical groups After conducting a diachronic comparative analysis this thesis concludes contemporary radical Islam in the southern Philippines is a fusion of both traditionalism and globalization Furthermore the causal factors evolved with respect to each group s ideology objectives and tactics Whereas the MILF was more representative of the legacy of traditional Islam the ASG was much more a product of globalization
