The Hand Of God And A Few Bright Flowers:

My Alexandria Mark Doty, 1993 A book about mortality the mortal weight of AIDS in particular New and Selected Poems, 1962-92 Laurence Lieberman, 1993 A super abundant rollicksome delight Lieberman s voice surges through everywhere triumphantly inimitably his own His passion for observation driven by minute particulars like a mighty engine working magnificently through its many intricate nuts and bolts amounts to the most to be treasured virtue in poetry an observation of passion Theodore Weiss The House of Song David Wagoner, 2002 As a recipient of Poetry s Levinson Prize and the Ruth Lilly Prize and a nominee for the American Book Award and National Book Award David Wagoner is one of this country s most celebrated poets In The House of Song he offers a hundred new poems in six parts At turns elegiac comic and nostalgic these poems venture to the seemingly infinitesimal points where people legends and culture collide with nature memory and action With characteristic wit and brevity Wagoner chronicles the material invasions of the natural world reconsidering Thoreau amid ruminations on voyeurs and destroyers slug watchers and moth collectors The House of Song asserts Wagoner s place among the finest of American poets past and present In the Black Window Michael Van Walleghe, 2004-05-12 The title of Michael Van Walleghe s new collection evokes thematic preoccupations that have shadowed him throughout his long career Appearing as a phrase in the poems themselves In the Black Window more generally points to Van Walleghe s enduring interest in the intersection between inner and outer worlds of experience those liminal moments in other worlds where we become aware of ourselves We live at once in a strictly personal material dimension but also in a distinctly spiritual one Yet when looking from a lighted kitchen into a night black window on a winter evening we might perhaps become suddenly aware not only of our own reflection but also of our complicity in some deeper mystery altogether The Welcome David Friedman, 2010-10-01 Fables for the modern age Arts of a Cold Sun G. E. Murray, 2010-10-01 In these poems G E Murray blends the colors of the soul with those of the world it brushes up against exploring the ways in which art both as possession and possessor informs perception Viewing his subjects sometimes from airplane altitude sometimes from the intimacy of a shared restaurant table Murray crafts true stories about color narratives of dislocation and belonging that invite readers to question their own relationship to art Included in this volume is a long sequential poem titled The Seconds which Murray composed across the second days of thirteen months The rhythms of this diary as poem seize the tensions of shifting times and locales capturing the essences of moments that are at once chosen and arbitrary Codes toward an Incidental City the sequence that closes the book is a confederacy of forty poems that delve into the concrete familiarities and mythologies of urban landscapes illuminating the ecstasies of city life The Cambridge Companion to American Poetry Since 1945 Jennifer Ashton, 2013-02-08 Explores the ways in which American poetry has documented and sometimes helped propel the literary and cultural revolutions of the past sixty five years The Hollow Log Lounge R. T. Smith, 2010-10-01 This is no fairy tale It s all fantastic and bizarre and true It s my life a raspy song that sounds better if you sing along The men and women who live and work near Opelika Alabama gather at the Hollow Log Lounge There under the watchful eye of the stuffed fox behind the bar they unload their gripes and worries tell their stories argue joke commune complain and confess In this collection of poems R T Smith paints a vividly imagined portrait of the community in this small town bar capturing the chorus of the patrons voices echoing off the knotted wood paneled walls Smith s stand in Sam Buckhannon scribbles stories heard and overheard as tongues loosened by liquor spin out monologues in which southern idiom and vernacular seem perfectly at home within the constraints of measured verse The Iron City John Bensko,2000 These vivid narrative and lyrical poems focus on scenes and characters from the coal and steel producing regions of Alabama an unlikely but rich source for meditations on the hidden emotions of our lives The iron city is a world in which a child and the people around him are trapped in the mystery of their surroundings trying to reach toward love understanding and clarity Acclaimed poet John Bensko creates powerful images of enclosed spaces both physical and emotional and of the surprising radiance they evoke Through the central metaphor of a raw material that contains both its history Memory of delicate Ferns leaves bones of fishes and its future Coal the rock that burns The Iron City explores the chasm between child and adult musing over veins depleted resources misused and the glint of promise deep underground

Filò Per Il Casanova Di Fellini Andrea Zanzotto,1997 The main body of this volume is a unique film poem that grew out of Zanzotto s collaboration with Federico Fellini on the film Casanova The poem s beauty is enhanced by its presentation in the original Veneto dialect along with contemporary Italian and English With reference to Finnegans Wake and utilizing Fellini inspired myth the trilingual play of the poetry is rich in layers rich in meanings Including drawings by Fellini and illustrations by Murer this volume also contains poems dedicated to Montzale Pasolini and Charlie Chaplin and the first English translation of Zanzotto s poem on the tragedy of Bosnia all together in an unusual and beautiful format
