Croinin,William Edward Vaughan,2005 "The Given Note" Seán Crosson,2021-02-03 The oldest records indicate that the performance of poetry in Gaelic Ireland was normally accompanied by music providing a point of continuity with past tradition while bolstering a sense of community in the present Music would also offer particularly for poets writing in English from the eighteenth century onwards a perceived authenticity a connection with an older tradition perceived as being untarnished by linguistic and cultural division While providing an innovative analysis of theoretical work in music and literary studies this book examines how traditional Irish music including the related song tradition primarily in Irish has influenced and is apparent in the work of Irish poets While looking generally at where this influence is evident historically and in contemporary Irish poetry this work focuses primarily on the work of six poets three who write in English and three who write primarily in the Irish language Thomas Kinsella Seamus Heaney Ciaran Carson Gear id Mac Lochlainn Nuala N Dhomhnaill and Cathal Searcaigh Irish Orientalism Joseph Lennon,2008-08-04 Centuries before W B Yeats wove Indian Japanese and Irish forms together in his poetry and plays Irish writers found kinships in Asian and West Asian cultures This book maps the unacknowledged discourse of Irish Orientalism within Ireland s complex colonial heritage Catalog of Copyright Entries. Davis,2011 Paul E H Davis and the Irish Land Question In his challenging new book Paul E H Davis offers an entirely new critique of how novelists in nineteenth century Ireland had to act both as writers and historians in their attempts to find a solution to what became the Irish Land Question Challenging the widely held nationalist view that Irish novelists of this period had little or nothing to offer Davis slots these castaway novelists into a new identifiable category the agrarian novelists The book is divided into three parts Part One considers novelists writing between the Union and the Famine Maria Edgeworth Gerald Griffin John and Michael Banim and William Carleton Part Two looks at how the agrarian novel emigrates with reference to the novels of Charles Kickham and to the Irish novels of Anthony Trollope Part Three considers how some agrarian novelists specifically Thomas Moore and Bram Stoker felt the solution lay not in the real world but in the world of fantasy An exceptional book on why the agrarian novelists deserve to be valued for their unique perception of Ireland in the nineteenth century

A Literary History of England Vol. 4 A Baugh,2004-06-02 First published in 1959 The scope of this four volume work makes it valuable as a work of reference connecting one period with another and placing each author clearly in the setting of his time This is the fourth volume and includes the Nineteenth Century and after 1789 1939
