The Heart Of Reality Essays On Beauty Love And Ethics:

The Heart of Reality Vladimir Sergeyevich Soloviev, 2020-09-15 Vladimir S Soloviev 1853 1900 moral philosopher social and literary critic theologian and poet is considered one of Russia's greatest philosophers But Soloviev is relatively unknown in the West despite his close association with Fyodor Dostoevsky who modeled one of his most famous literary characters Alyosha Karamazov on Soloviev In The Heart of Reality Vladimir Wozniuk offers lucid translations a substantive introduction and careful annotations that make many of Soloviev's writings accessible for the first time to an English speaking audience Soloviev worked tirelessly in the name of the mystical body of the Universal Church The vast bulk of his writings can be construed as promoting in one way or another the cause of ecumenism His essays also display the influence of Platonic and German Idealism and strands of Thomistic thinking Wozniuk demonstrates the consistency of Soloviev's biblically based thought on the subjects of aesthetics love and ethics while at the same time clarifying Soloviev's concept of vseedinstvo the unity of spiritual and material especially as applied to literature Containing many previously untranslated essays The Heart of Reality situates Soloviev more clearly in the mainstream of Western religious philosophy and Christian thought Thinking Orthodox in Modern Russia Patrick Lally Michelson, Judith Deutsch Kornblatt, 2014-07-31 This collection of essays on Russian religious thought focuses on the extent to which Russian culture and ideology has been informed by the nation's roots in Orthodox Christianity Freedom, Faith, and Dogma V. S. Soloviev, 2009-07-01 A collection of works by nineteenth century Russian religious philosopher V S Soloviev critic of secularization anti-Semitism and the religious life of his time Here Comes Everybody William C. Graham, 2009 Some of these essays were first delivered as lectures in the Here Comes Everybody series to inaugurate the establishment of the Braegelman Program of Catholic Studies at The College of St Scholastica in Duluth Minnesota The authors gathered here begin to suggest something of the depth and breadth of the living Catholic Intellectual Tradition They are leading the way in new and important discussions These programs are about more than Catholic institutions exploring and asserting their identity Surely those involved seek rigorous engagement with the Catholic Intellectual Tradition examining religious ideas and ideals and participating in the study of Catholic thought and culture They seek dialogue with Catholics of all mind sets with Christians from other denominations believers from other faith traditions and all who seek the truth Book Jacket Beyond Modernity Artur Mrowczynski-Van Allen, Teresa Obolovitch, Pawel Rojek, 2016-10-11 Post secularism is the fundamental evidence of the end of modernity Modernity as sleeping reason in Francisco Goya's painting realizes that although it thought that it was awake it was producing monsters We try to analyze post secular philosophy from the point of view of Russian religious thought We believe that such philosophers as Vladimir Soloviev Pavel Florensky Sergey Bulgakov Nikolai Berdyaev Georges Florovsky and Semen Frank may be helpful for understanding and overcoming post secular order Their unique views on the relations between religion and philosophy science and social life are apparently missing in the current Western debates It seems to us that Russian religious philosophy becomes surprisingly up to date and attractive in the contemporary world We hope that the present volume will be a significant step forward in the inclusion of the heritage of Russian religious philosophy in contemporary debates

Vladimir Solov'ëv's Justification of the Moral Good Thomas Nemeth, 2015-04-20 This new English translation of Solov'ëv's principal ethical treatise written in his later years presents Solov'ëv's mature views on a host of topics ranging from a critique of individualistic ethical systems to the death penalty the meaning of war animal rights and environmentalism Written for the educated public rather than for a narrow circle of specialists Solov'ëv's work largely avoids technical vocabulary while illustrating his points with references to classical literature from the ancient Greeks to Goethe Although written from a deeply held Christian viewpoint Solov'ëv emphasizes the turn from his earlier position now allegedly developing the independence of moral philosophy from metaphysics and revealed religion Solov'ëv sees the formal universality of the idea of the moral good in all human beings albeit that this idea is bereft of material content This first new English language translation in a century makes a unique contribution to the study of Solov'ëv's thought It uses the text of the second edition published in 1899 as its main text but provides the variations and additions from the earlier versions of each chapter in running notes Other unique features of this translation are that the pagination of the widely available 1914 edition is provided in the text and the sources of Solov'ëv's numerous Biblical quotations and references as well as literary and historical allusions

Siblings in Tolstoy and Dostoevsky Anna A. Berman, 2015-09-30 Anna A Berman's book brings to light the significance of sibling relationships in the writings of Tolstoy and Dostoevsky Relationships in their works have typically been studied through the lens of erotic love in the former and intergenerational conflict in the latter In close readings of their major novels Berman shows how both writers portray sibling relationships as a stabilizing force that counters the unpredictable often destructive elements of romantic entanglements and the hierarchical structure of generations Power and interconnectedness are cast in a new light Berman persuasively argues that both authors gradually come to consider siblinghood a model of all human relations discerning a career arc in each that moves from the dynamics within families to a much broader vision of universal brotherhood

Phantasms of Matter in Gogol (and Gombrowicz) Michal Oklot, 2009 An investigation into the problem of writing about matter in Nikolai Gogol's work and indirectly into the entire Neoplatonic tradition in Russian literature this book is not intended to be an exhaustive historical survey of the concept of matter but rather an effort to enumerate the images of matter in Gogol's texts and to specify the rules of their construction The trajectory of the book is directed by movement from Gogol to Gogol Its major assumption is that Gogol successfully develops a language for grasping the Neoplatonic concept of matter and subsequently rejects it abandoning literature Since then the Gogolian form sic of the image of a sheer negation of form has recurred frequently in Russian literature Yet the direction of the movement is always towards Gogol Somewhere at the margin of this circular trajectory one can inscribe a Polish writer Witold Gombrowicz who established one hundred years later a similar rhythm governing Polish literature from Gombrowicz to Gombrowicz Anthropomorphism in Christian Theology William C. Hackett, 2023-12-28 William C Hackett provides a renewed reading of Christian theology by evaluating the role of anthropomorphism in shaping negative theology Through this theological history he addresses the fear of anthropomorphism that prompted early philosophers and theologians to adopt abstract understandings of God Hackett charts the wide ranging importance of anthropomorphism to theology through figures including Balthasar Bultmann Dionysius the Areopagite and Cyril of Alexandria He argues that anthropomorphism highlights the unique conceptual problem between divine presence and absence By exploring the turn away from practical and embodied views of God in Scripture this book focuses on anthropomorphic views of God in symbols images and narratives Emphasising these forms promotes an intellectual vision of Christianity that challenges theoretical and conceptual abstraction Anthropomorphism in Christian Theology further traces the nuances between human and angelic intellect modern philosophy and theology negative theology and the concept of transcendence A History of Russian Philosophy 1830-1930 G. M. Hamburg, Randall A. Poole, 2010-04-22 The great age of Russian philosophy spans the century between 1830 and 1930 from the famous Slavophile Westernizer controversy of the 1830s and 1840s through the Silver Age of Russian culture at the beginning of the twentieth century to the formation of a Russian philosophical emigration in the wake of the Russian Revolution This volume is a major history and interpretation of Russian philosophy in this period Eighteen chapters plus a substantial introduction and afterword discuss Russian philosophy's main figures schools and controversies while simultaneously pursuing a common central theme the development of a distinctive Russian tradition of philosophical humanism focused on the defence of human dignity As this volume shows the century long debate over the meaning and grounds of human dignity freedom and the just society involved thinkers of all backgrounds and positions transcending easy classification as religious or secular The debate still resonates strongly today
