Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975 The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén, 2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ullén argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne's writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne's mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne's writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations A Companion to Herman Melville Wyn Kelley, 2015-06-24 In a series of 35 original essays this companion demonstrates the relevance of Melville's works in the twenty first century Presents 35 original essays by scholars from around the world representing a range of different approaches to Melville Considers Melville in a global context and looks at the impact of global economies and technologies on the way people read Melville Takes account of the latest and most sophisticated scholarship including postcolonial and feminist perspectives Locates Melville in his cultural milieu revising our views of his politics on race gender and democracy Reveals Melville as a more contemporary writer than his critics have sometimes assumed Edinburgh Companion to Nineteenth-Century American Letters and Letter-Writing Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2016-02-15 Provides a wide ranging entry point and intervention into scholarship on nineteenth century American letter writing This comprehensive study by leading scholars in an important new field the history of letters and letter writing is essential reading for anyone interested in nineteenth century American politics history or literature Because of its mass literacy population mobility and extensive postal system nineteenth century America is a crucial site for the exploration of letters and their meanings whether they be written by presidents and statesmen scientists and philosophers novelists and poets feminists and reformers immigrants Native Americans or African Americans This book breaks new ground by mapping the voluminous correspondence of these figures and other important American writers and thinkers Rather than treating the letter as a spontaneous private document the contributors understand it as a self conscious artefact circulating between friends and strangers and across multiple genres in ways that both make and break social ties Key Features Draws together different emphases on the intellectual literary and social uses of letter writing Provides students and researchers with a means to situate letters in their wider theoretical and historical contexts Methodologically expansive intellectually interrogative chapters based on original research by leading academics Offers new insights into the lives and careers of Louisa May Alcott Charles Brockden Brown Emily Dickinson Frederick Douglass Margaret Fuller Henry James Thomas Jefferson Abraham Lincoln Herman Melville Harriet Beecher Stowe and Edgar Allan Poe among many others Domestic Individualism Gillian Brown, 1992-09-30 Gillian Brown's book probes the key relationship between domestic ideology and formulations of the self in nineteenth century America Arguing that domesticity institutes gender class and racial distinctions that govern masculine as well as feminine identity Brown brilliantly alters for literary critics feminists and cultural historians the critical perspective from which nineteenth century American literature and culture have been viewed In this study of the domestic constitution of individualism Brown traces how the values of interiority order privacy and enclosure associated with the American home come to define selfhood in general By analyzing writings by Stowe Hawthorne Melville Fern and Gilman and by examining other contemporary cultural modes abolitionism consumerism architecture interior decorating motherhood mesmerism hysteria and agoraphobia she reconfigures the parameters of both domesticity and the patterns of self it fashions Unfolding a representational history of the domestic Brown s work offers striking new readings of the literary texts as well as of the cultural contexts that they embody
