The National Dream:

The National Dream Pierre Berton, 2011-06-22 In 1871 a tiny nation just four years old its population well below the 4 million mark determined that it would build the world's longest railroad across empty country much of it unexplored This decision bold to the point of recklessness was to change the lives of every man woman and child in Canada and alter the shape of the nation Using primary sources diaries letters unpublished manuscripts public documents and newspapers Pierre Berton has reconstructed the incredible decade of the 1870s when Canadians of every stripe contractors politicians financiers surveyors workingmen journalists and entrepreneurs fought for the railway or against it The National Dream is above all else the story of people It is the story of George McMullen the brash young promoter who tried to blackmail the Prime Minister of Marcus Smith the crusty surveyor so suspicious of authority he thought the Governor General was speculating in railway lands of Sanford Fleming the great engineer who invented Standard Time but who couldn't make up his mind about the best route for the railway All these figures and dozens more including the political leaders of the era come to life with all their human ambitions and failings Xi Jinping's 'Chinese Dream' Prashant Kumar Singh, 2022-12-30 Singh analyses the influence of Xi's Chinese Dream on China's foreign relations and security postures Xi Jinping's rise has led to a paradigm shift in many aspects of China's domestic and international politics A key element of this has been the ideological vision shorthanded as the Chinese Dream combining elements of nationalism Confucian ideology and economic expansionism Singh evaluates the various changes in China's nominally communist ideology in the post Mao era with an emphasis on the implications for China's economic and security relations with other countries He particularly focusses on China's approach to South Asia and the Indian Ocean Region key elements of China's strategy An insightful guide to understanding the direction of China's foreign and security policy and especially its impact on India China relations The National Dream, 1974

The National Dream Pierre Berton, 1975 Samia Mehrez, 2010-01-01 A look at some of the raging debates in the arts in Egypt Recasting History Monica MacDonald, 2019-06-15 Since 1952 CBC television has played a unique role as the primary mass media purveyor of Canadian history Yet until now there have been no comprehensive accounts of Canadian history on television Monica MacDonald takes us behind the scenes of the major documentaries and docudramas broadcast on the CBC including Explorations 1956-64 and the series Images of Canada 1972-76 The National Dream 1974 The Valour and the Horror 1992 and Canada A People's History 2000-02 Drawing on a wide range of sources MacDonald explores how producers struggled to represent the Canadian past under a range of external and internal pressures Despite dramatic shifts in the writing of history over this period she determines that television themes and interpretations largely remained the same The greater change was in the production and presentation particularly in the role of professional historians as journalists emerged not only as the new producers of Canadian history on CBC television but also as the new content authorities A critique of public history through the lens of political economy Recasting History reveals the conflicts compromises and controversies that have shaped the CBC version of the Canadian past Pierre Berton Brian McKillop, 2011-06-22 The first ever biography of one of Canada's best known and most colourful personalities by an award winning author From his northern childhood on it was clear that Pierre Berton 1920-2004 was different from his peers Over the course of his eighty four years he would become the most famous Canadian media figure of his time in newspapers magazines radio television and books sometimes all at once Berton dominated bookstore shelves for almost half a century winning Governor General's Awards for Klondike and The Last Spike among many others along with a dozen honorary degrees Throughout it all Berton was larger than life full of verve and ideas he approached everything he did with passion humour and an insatiable curiosity He loved controversy and being the centre of attention and provoked national debate on subjects as wide ranging as religion and marijuana use A major voice of Canadian nationalism at the dawn of globalization he made Canadians take interest in their own history and become proud of it But he had his critics too and some considered him egocentric and mean spirited Now with the same meticulous research and storytelling skill that earned him wide critical acclaim for The Spinster and the Prophet Brian McKillop traces Pierre Berton's remarkable life with special emphasis on his early days and his rise to prominence The result is a comprehensive vivid portrait of the life and work of one of our most celebrated national figures

Rethinking Period Boundaries Lucian George, Jade McGlynn, 2022-03-21 Periodization is an ever present feature of the grammar of history writing As with all grammatical rules the order it imposes can structure but also stifle historical interpretations Though few historians consider their period boundaries as anything more than useful guidelines heuristic artifice all too easily congeals into immovable structure blinkering the historical gaze In this cross disciplinary volume an international group of historians and cultural scholars considers different ways in which accepted period boundaries in modern European history and cultural studies can be challenged and rethought Alongside a theoretical introduction and epilogue the volume contains seven case studies exploring hitherto under researched continuities and discontinuities in the social cultural intellectual literary labour and art history of 19th and 20th century Europe with a particular focus on the continent's East Topics covered include French anti communism peasant memories of serfdom cosmopolitan art in a nationalist age the communist takeover of Poland Russian literary history and national day traditions in East Central Europe To problematize period boundaries the chapters in this volume adopt the perspective of social groups that standard periodization schemes have ignored shine a light on awkward actors who have appeared out of step with canonical understandings of their period consider how historical actors themselves divide up history and how this informs historical practice and explore the difficulties that the non synchronicity of different historical processes can pose for periodization

America and Americans John Steinbeck, 1966-10-12 The author offers his opinions on life in America during the mid twentieth century One Last Dream W. E. Gutman, 2017-06-08 In his newest and most chilling dystopia W E Gutman takes fellow insomniacs on a dark eerie journey into a netherworld of visions that skirt the nightmarish regions of insanity Written for the stage and screen ONE LAST DREAM asks disquieting questions Do the dreams we spin the thoughts we ponder betray us Can our musings be censored Will the neurons in our brains be rewired to turn us into servile conformists Is the clash of dreams the real cause of mankind s afflictions If neuroscientists succeed there will soon be a way to access and decipher the brain s most quirky constructs And ethicists will struggle with a new conundrum Will dreamers be spied upon by some future thought police How long before eccentric nightmares or heretical concepts whether seized in one s sleep or evoked in a wakeful state are intercepted and wayward dreamers are reprogrammed or permanently silenced In ONE LAST DREAM W E Gutman explores the consequences of mind manipulation in a world where free thought is feared erudition is reviled and morality is little more than a distillate of codified groupthink
