COMMENTS FROM

THE NEGRO MOOD

ON THE "BLACK ESTABLISHMENT":

"Almost everyone knows that the white power structure is threatened by the Negro rebellion. What is not noted often enough is that Negro men of power are also on trial ...not for the battles they lost, but for the battles they did not fight."

ON WHITE LIBERALS:

"The white liberal is seeking personal salvation, not justice... What moves him is guilt. What the liberal seeks is his lost innocence. What the liberal wants, paradoxically, is for the Negro to tell him that he is not as white and as cold as snow."

ON NEGRO-WHITE RELATIONS:

"It would help enormously in America if there were a ten-year moratorium on the use of the word love... It is not required, finally, that we love each other. What is required is something infinitely more difficult, for us to confront each other."
