Comparative Economics in a Transforming World Economy John Barkley Rosser, 2004 The second edition of an innovative undergraduate textbook in Comparative Economic Systems that goes beyond the traditional dichotomies

The Chinese Diaspora and Mainland China C. Lever-Tracy, D. Ip, N. Tracy, 1996-09-06 The book describes the alliance since the mid 1980s of the entrepreneurs of the Chinese diaspora with the new locally based industrialisation that reform in China has allowed to flourish in its townships and villages The synergy between these two derives from the ability of small non bureaucratic actors on both sides to establish networks based on personal trust and reciprocity producing a new kind of transformative development from below in which established Western and Japanese multinationals have little role

Trade, Industrial Restructuring and Development in Hong Kong Ho Yin-Ping, 2016-07-27 Focusing on trade in manufactures industrial restructuring and economic development and enforced by a rich source of data this book offers an in depth examination of the evolution and characteristics of Hong Kong's postwar economy The book presents an historical and comparative perspective and analyses the symbiotic connection with South China in the light of China's open door policy since late 1970s as well providing a thoughtful assessment of its current turning point

Pioneering Economic Reform in China's Special Economic Zones Weiping Wu, 2018-08-17 First published in 1999 this volume assessed the economic situation of Shenzhen in Guangdong Province China including its trade connections with Hong Kong and foreign investments in the area Designated as one of four Special Economic Zones SEZ as part of China's domestic economic reform in 1979 Weiping Wu examines Shenzhen's economic situation in the context of Hong Kong's transition just two years prior to publication in 1997 Wu explores the developments in Shenzhen in local policy labor costs export performance domestic linkages and complementarity with Hong Kong as a result of Hong Kong's closer connection with the Shenzhen trade area Shenzhen's suitability can then be assessed in its role as an SEZ to experiment with and digest western technology and management techniques for inland China and as a buffer between China and the wider world

Capitalist Development and Economism in East Asia Kui-Wai Li, 2003-08-29 Taking a conceptual approach this book studies the economic development of the four East Asian economies since 1950 The author summarizes and reconsiders many of the arguments and findings that supported and explained the economic miracles of Hong Kong Singapore Taiwan and South Korea analysing the relationship between economic development growth and political economy This pioneering book will stimulate further analysis of East Asian development It will be of essential interest to scholars in East Asian

economics and all those interested in modern economic development The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR Ming K. Chan, Sonny Shiu-hing Lo, 2010 The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China is located on the southeastern coast of China and the Macao SAR can be found off of China's southern coast Both regions have recently been released from European colonial rule Hong Kong from British control in 1997 and Macao from Portugal in 1999 As SARs Hong Kong and Macao retain a high degree of autonomy and they control all issues except those of state e.g. diplomatic relations and national defense The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR includes maps photographs a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places and events as well as political economic and social background However unlike the rest of the series all these sections are presented in duplicate one for Hong Kong and one for Macao The authoritative analysis and informative data presented clearly elucidate the unique situation of these two territories China - U.S. Relations in the 21st Century, 1996 Perspectives on Accounting and Finance in China (RLE Accounting) John Blake, Simon Gao, 2013-12-04 The rush of entrepreneurial activity in China has been watched with interest by the financial world This book the result of an international symposium on Chinese accounting and financial management assesses the little known accounting scene in China which up until 1978 remained behind closed doors Divided into four sections the volume covers Chinese perspectives on accounting the business and financial structure of China including the re emergence of a Chinese stock market the regulatory framework of accounting in China and comparisons with international accounting standards the impact of current reforms in Chinese accounting practice the emergence of a new accounting profession in China The concluding chapter provides an overview of the cultural context of the reforms which took place in the 1990s By using comparisons with other Asian countries accounting systems like Taiwan the contributors to the volume give an analysis of the state of accountancy in China during the 1990s
