The New Genesis Theology And The Genetic Revolution:

The New Genesis Ronald Cole-Turner,1993-01-01 How should living things and our own human nature be changed in the hands of those who can alter them genetically How do we set limits and what goals are legitimate pursuits This book s contribution to a theological understanding of science and technology helps in showing how Christian theology can provide a solid framework for considering these issues      The New Genetic Medicine Thomas Anthony Shannon,James J.

Walter,2003 Since the 1970s the interrelated areas of medical genetics and biotechnology have developed dramatically and afforded increased control over the design of living organisms From the very beginning controversies over these techniques and their applications to plants animals and humans have raged in many disciplines including science philosophy ethics and religion This book brings together the seminal essays of two leading Catholic moral theologians Thomas Shannon and James Walter in an effort to identify the key ethical and theological questions raised by the new genetic medicine What is unique about this book is that it specifically and directly brings modern genetics and the Roman Catholic theological and ethical tradition into dialogue While the authors argue that the Catholic tradition has much to offer in putting this current scientific revolution into perspective they well understand the need to avoid merely repeating the tradition in favor of bringing the best of the tradition to bear on the precise questions posed by modern genetic technology      The Trinity, Creation and Pastoral Ministry Graham Buxton,2007-01-01 In this book the author proposes a three way conversation between theology science and pastoral ministry His approach draws on a Trinitarian understanding of God as a relational being of love whose life spills over into all created reality human and nonhuman By locating human meaning and purpose within God s creation community this book offers the possibility of a transforming engagement between those in pastoral ministry and the scientific community

Networked Theology (Engaging Culture) Heidi A. Campbell,Stephen Garner,2016-09-20 The Theological Implications of Digital Culture This informed theology of communication and media analyzes how we consume new media and technologies and discusses the impact on our social and religious lives Combining expertise in religion online theology and technology the authors synthesize scholarly work on religion and the internet for a nonspecialist audience They show that both media studies and theology offer important resources for helping Christians engage in a thoughtful and faith based critical evaluation of the effect of new media technologies on society our lives and the church      Wesleyan Perspectives on Human Flourishing Dean G. Smith,Rob A. Fringer,2021-11-12 Human flourishing is an ever expanding concept that crosses geographic ethnic cultural and religious lines as persons both individually and corporately seek to find happiness fulfillment and purpose This book brings together well established and burgeoning Wesleyan scholars to consider not only John and Charles Wesley s understanding of human flourishing but the broader Wesleyan perspectives on contemporary issues such as calling creation care healthcare education technological enhancements death and dying and more Throughout these chapters the complexities and challenges of life both past and present are explored and grappled with and we are reminded over and over again that God is the ultimate source of flourishing      Genetic Ethics John Frederic Kilner, Rebecca Davis Pentz, Frank E. Young, 1997 This timely volume written by scholars and practitioners at the forefront of genetic research will help readers assess from a Christian perspective the ethical questions raised by today's genetic advancements      Digital Religion Heidi A. Campbell, Ruth Tsuria, 2021-09-30 This book offers a critical and systematic survey of the study of religion and digital media It covers religious engagement with a wide range of digital media forms and highlights examples of new media engagement in all five of the major world religions From mobile apps and video games to virtual reality and social media the book provides a detailed review of major topics including ritual identity community authority and embodiment includes a series of engaging case studies to illustrate and elucidate the thematic explorations considers the theoretical ethical and theological issues raised This unique volume draws together the work of experts from key disciplinary perspectives and is the go to volume for students and scholars wanting to develop a deeper understanding of the subject area Thoroughly updated throughout with new case studies and in depth analysis of recent scholarship and developments this new edition provides a comprehensive overview of this fast paced constantly developing and fascinating field      Transhumanism as a Challenge for Ethics and Religion LIT Verlag, 2021-01-01 The crucial question of our time is How to preserve humanity humanitas in a world of radical and not so long ago practically unimaginable technological possibilities The book addresses this issue through its treatment of transhumanism a diverse movement the representatives of which promise and advocate for the enhancement of human being through modern science technology and pharmacology Their views differ in the degree of extremity and they contain many ambiguities as well as pitfalls and dangers that require an answer from both ethical and religious points of view The book deepens the understanding of transhumanism in an interdisciplinary way and thus helps to form the right attitude towards it that will truly benefit human flourishing It offers a rich variety of views on transhumanism ranging from its illumination in the light of contemporary research into happiness through liberal eugenics and biopolitics all the way to its considerations in terms of religions and manifestations in concrete works of art Robert Petkov ek is Professor of Philosophy at the Faculty of Theology University of Ljubljana Professor Bojan alec is the Head of the Institute of Philosophy and Social Ethics at the Faculty of Theology University of Ljubljana      Glory to God: A Companion Carl P. Jr. Daw, 2016-05-25 This informative resource provides a brief history of each hymn in the popular hymnal Glory to God Written by one of the foremost hymn scholars today the Companion explains when and why each hymn was written and provides biographical information about the hymn writers Church leaders will benefit from this book when choosing hymn texts for every worship occasion Several indexes will be included making this a valuable reference tool for pastors worship planners scholars and students as well as an interesting and engaging resource for music lovers      Cloning Human Beings: no distinct title United States.
