The Guiltless:

Becoming a New Person Philip St. Romain, 2010-10-02 This was the first book 1984 on the Twelve Steps of recovery groups published so that anyone in the Christian tradition even those not in recovery could benefit from the wisdom of the Steps It integrates traditional teachings on Christian spirituality with the Twelve Step approach in such manner that any Christian working the Steps can benefit from its basic transformative emphases Theology and Practice of Mission

Bruce Riley Ashford, 2011-09-01 Theology disconnected from mission is not Christian theology at all The pastors professors and missionaries writing Theology and Practice of Mission provide a clear biblical theological framework for understanding the church's mission to the nations Toward that goal the book holds three major sections God's mission the church's mission and the church's mission to the nations Part one explores the canon of Christian Scripture from narrative and systematic angles explaining how the mission of God to redeem a people who will be a kingdom of priests to the praise of his glory bear witness to his gospel advance his church and dwell with him forever on a new heaven and earth is communicated in the Bible's four movements Creation Fall Redemption and Restoration Part two sees the mission of God's people in the light of God's mission emphasizing not only preaching and church planting but also gospel witness in every dimension of human culture glorifying God in family church work community through the arts sciences education business and the public square The writers encourage us to live missionally leaving all of our resources at God's disposal for the sake of his kingdom Finally part three contends that the North American church must come to terms with its missional calling just as international missionaries do and gives a starting point and parameters for conceiving the church's mission to all people groups and cultural contexts Chapters here include ones on unreached people groups Muslims Hindus Buddhists and Postmoderns
