The Handicrafts Of The Sailor:

The Handicrafts of the Sailor Steven Banks, 1974      The Sailor's Magazine, 1841      Objects of Poverty Joseph Harley, Vicky Holmes, 2025-07-24 Objects of Poverty is the first volume dedicated to analysing the material culture of poverty in British history from 1700 to the present. The book examines the history of poverty through the objects owned by the poor and those crafted, repurposed or simply encountered by them, offering critical new insights into the experience of being impoverished. This collection brings together leading and emerging scholars who draw on a wide array of objects of poverty from those that survive today (ranging from dolls to whistles to textile samples) to those that have long since gone and now only exist in visual and written sources. The contributors trace the importance of materiality in eighteenth-century and modern life, covering objects connected to sustenance, home, the makeshift childhood, animals, money, workhouses, and injury and death. In its 23 chapters, along with some 77 illustrations, the book provides a detailed exploration of the history of poverty in Britain. Each of the chapters is based on original research and makes a new contribution to the literature. This book will be fascinating reading for history enthusiasts, students, and established academics across multiple disciplines.

The Carver's Art Simon J. Bronner, 2021-11-21 Chains carved from a single block of wood, cages whittled with wooden balls rattling inside, all made with just a pocketknife, are among our most enduring folk designs. Who makes them and why? What is their history? What do they mean for their makers, for their viewers, for our society? Simon J. Bronner portrays four woodcarvers in southern Indiana, men who had been transplanted from the rural landscapes of their youth to industrial towns. After retiring, they took up a skill they remembered from childhood. Bronner discusses how creativity helped these men adjust to change and how viewers' responses to carving reflect their own backgrounds. By recording the narratives of these men's lives, the stories and anecdotes that laced their conversation, Bronner finds new insight into the functions and symbolism of traditional craft. Including a new illustrated afterword in which the author discusses recent developments in the carver's art, this new edition will appeal to carvers, scholars, and anyone interested in traditional woodworking.      The German Invasion of Western North Carolina Jacqueline Burgin Painter, 1997 History of a World War I prisoner-of-war camp in Hot Springs, North Carolina.      The Commercialized Crafts of Thailand Erik Cohen, 2000-07-01 This volume brings together two decades of research into the process of commercialization of the folk crafts of Thailand: the conditions of its emergence, the parties involved in its development, the changes in the processes and organization of production which accompany it, the channels through which commercialized craft products are marketed, the nature of the audiences which they reach, and the transformations in appearance and meaning which the products undergo as a result of their commercialization. Each chapter deals with a specific issue in a particular context, but virtually all of them relate to one or another of these principal aspects of the process of commercialization. Part I explores the commercialization of hill-tribe textiles, particularly those of the Hmong refugees from Laos. Part II presents a series of case studies of the various ways in which the products of lowland Thai craft
