The Heart An Analysis Of Human And Divine Affectivity:

The Heart Dietrich Von Hildebrand, 2007 The second half of The Heart makes the philosophical analysis fruitful for our understanding of the affectivity of the God Man Here readers will not only find important contributions of theology and spiritually but also an illuminating re reading of familiar Scriptural passages BOOK JACKET

The Sacred Heart : an Analysis of Human and Divine Affectivity Dietrich Von Hildebrand, 1965 One of the Trinity Has Suffered:

Balthasar's Theology of Divine Suffering in Dialogue Joshua R. Brotherton, 2020-01-01 Hans Urs von Balthasar's discourse on the descent of Christ into hell and its implications for the Triune God have been disputed for half a century One of the Trinity has Suffered evaluates and revises von Balthasar's theology of divine suffering in a way that interacts with and significantly enriches contemporary Catholic theology In this book Joshua R Brotherton engages twentieth century Thomistic theology as well as the thought of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI Joseph Ratzinger and Pope St John Paul II Drawing from the vast secondary literature on von Balthasar Brotherton offers a balanced assessment of his work on the topic of divine suffering both critical and appreciative Recognizing von Balthasar's laudable attempt to integrate mystical spirituality and systematic theology Brotherton seeks to distinguish valid insights from confused mixtures of metaphorical meta symbolic and philosophical metaphysical discourse on God particularly with respect to the classical problem of how the Creator who willed to become incarnate may be said to suffer Truly One of the Trinity has suffered and yet this mystery of faith must be carefully explained and understood in conformity with sustained Catholic reflection on divine immutability and simplicity the dual nature and unique personhood of Christ the Trinity of divine subsistent relations the freedom of God in creating and becoming man the analogy of being the problem of evil and the immensity and infinite value of Christ's redemptive suffering

I Am With You Always Benedict C.F.R. Groeschel, 2011-02-18 A Study of the History and Meaning of Personal Devotion to Jesus Christ for Catholic Orthodox and Protestant Christians The devotional life of Christians over the two millennia since Jesus birth has been one of motion changing and growing in response to the challenges presented to the Church the temperaments of newly baptized nations and controversies about how we can and should relate to God And yet the core of authentic Christian devotion has not changed it remains today as it was in the time of the Church Fathers the trusting and personal encounter with Christ that is both open and foundational to the life of all Christian believers In this book the well known spiritual writer and teacher Fr Benedict Groeschel C F R surveys the development and trials of Christian devotion from the days of the martyrs until the twentieth century Tracking it through the centuries and among sadly divided branches of Christianity he finds a commonality of experience and even of language that is constantly ignored among Christians themselves By observing what image of Christ the canvas of common devotion portrays he hopes we will move not to discredit this image but to sharpen it and make it more consistent with the New Testament and the ancient Church Though the devotional life is sometimes brushed off as unimportant in comparison to a theological understanding of Christ Groeschel

warns that such dismissal threatens to make distant unknown and obscure the Savior who said I am with you always The answer instead is to draw near to Jesus in devotion and with authentic expressions of that devotion which themselves help paint the image of Christ found concretely in revelation onto the minds and daily life of the devout Begun on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and the result of years of preparation and a whole life of guiding people as priest public preacher psychologist and spiritual director this book will help Catholic Orthodox and Protestant believers gain not only a comprehensive view of how pious Christians over the centuries have lived out their devotion to God but the examples and perspective they need to live more devoutly today

Theological Anthropology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium Kevin Wagner, Peter John McGregor, M. Isabell Naumann, 2022-04-29 Theological Anthropology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium is the third volume of the Theology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium series Bringing together Catholic and Orthodox scholars of diverse disciplines this work sheds new light on the question what does it mean to be a human person Beginning with an overview on the state of the discipline in our time the book brings theological anthropology into dialogue with epistemology Christology science spiritual theology and pedagogy It explores how human persons who are created in God's image and likeness can come to knowledge of the self and the other such that the individual person can know love and be united to the God and Father of Jesus Christ

The Spiritual Formation of Seminarians James Keating, 2025-05-16 In this book Deacon James Keating provides an opportunity for one spiritual director to introduce his mind to the minds of other directors with the hope that his ideas may season their own already developed method of direction The book does not attend to all the possible realities a director may encounter within his or her training or within the daily execution of this ministry The author wishes to share his approach to directing seminarians by reflecting upon themes and experiences which regularly appear within direction sessions Spiritual direction certainly has some universal components to it All directors want their directees to internalize a habit of prayer to choose a life of remaining with God to suffer the vulnerability necessary to know divine love and to then embody that love as heralds of the Gospel But each director approaches his or her directees from within their own skin from within a personality that is unique and by way of a formation that reflects the unique attractions of each director and his or her own sufferings failures and fidelities These unique embodiments no one writer can know or capture in a book And so this book simply begins a conversation that the author invites other directors to enter and add to according to their own insights The spiritual life of those in seminary occupies the integrating center of a projected life of priestly ministry Time needed to secure an interior life of prayer is one of the key reasons the Church demands years of formation before the celibate state is entered Such a state in life is entered as a testimony to the reality that God lives and loves In light of such love a man enters seminary to discern if he desires to surrender his whole life in response to God sharing His own To live as a cleric without a vital interior life leaves a man in a state of meaninglessness Instilling the virtue of prayer during priestly formation can help assure that celibate priesthood retains its inspiration and meaning throughout the life of a priest Spiritual directors minister to assist a future priest to secure a lifetime habit of prayer so as to secure his commitment to communicate with the living God Hermeneutical Narratives in Art, Literature, and Communication Malgorzata

Haladewicz-Grzelak, Paula García-Ramírez, 2024-02-22 Exploring the relationship between hermeneutics and the arts including painting music and literature this book builds on hermeneutics from a practical perspective connecting this area of critical research with others to reveal how it is viewed from different perspectives International and interdisciplinary in scope this edited volume draws on the work of scholars and practitioners working across a variety of subject areas themes and topics including philosophy literature religious paintings musical oeuvres Chinese urbanscapes Moroccan proverbs and Ukrainian internet blogs Focusing on the idea of hermeneutics as a discipline that can connect different areas of interest the book offers an inside view into how the contributors interpret it within their own academic remits demonstrating its presence in qualitative academic interpretations and canonical contemporary research in humanities The Catholic Reception of

Continental Philosophy in North America Gregory P. Floyd, Stephanie Rumpza, 2020-01-29 This volume by leading philosophers and theologians explores the reception of continental philosophy in North America and its ongoing relation to Catholic institutions What has prompted so many North American Catholics to support this particular school of thought Why do so many Catholics continue to find continental philosophy attractive and why do so many continental philosophers work in Catholic departments The establishment of the relationship between continental philosophy and Catholicism was not obvious nor was it easy Many of the contributors to this volume have played important roles in its development and in these pages they take a stance on this evolving relationship and demonstrate that the engagement is far from over Exploring the mutual interests that made this alliance possible as well as the underlying tensions the volume provides for the first time an extended reflection on the historical institutional and intellectual relationship between Catholicism and continental philosophy on North American soil up to the present day The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and

Phenomenological Philosophy Burt C. Hopkins, Daniele De Santis, 2024-10-11 Volume XXII Special Issue 1 Celebrating Wilhelm Schapp In Geschichten verstrickt Special Issue 2 Theodor Conrad and the early phenomenological tradition Aim and Scope The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy provides an annual international forum for phenomenological research in the spirit of Husserl's groundbreaking work and the extension of this work by such figures as Reinach Scheler Stein Hering Heidegger Sartre Levinas Merleau Ponty Gadamer and others Contributors Theodor Conrad Francesca D Alessandris Johannes Daubert Alexis Delamare Neal DeRoo Daniele De Santis Karen Joisten Emanuele Mariani Ronny Miron Daniele Nuccilli Gianfranco Pecchinenda Margaret Stark Hamit Taieb and Andrij Wachtel Submissions Manuscripts prepared for blind review should be submitted to the Editors daniele desantis ff cuni cz electronically via e mail attachments Spiritual Direction: A Guide for Sharing the Father's Love Fr. Boniface Hicks, Fr. Thomas Acklin, 2017

The need for spiritual direction or the accompaniment of a spiritual guide is becoming more prominent in a world where so many are suffering from so many wounds With a harmonious integration of both timeless spiritual wisdom from the Catholic Church's tradition of prayer and direction and the insight of the psychological sciences Fathers Thomas Acklin and Boniface Hicks offer a comprehensive guide for all who provide or seek spiritual direction Spiritual Direction A Guide for Sharing the Father's Love fortifies priests religious and lay faithful who embrace the ministry of spiritual direction and accompany the wounded assist men and women in hearing the voice of God and model the love and mercy of the Father for the many who are seeking Him but do not know Him or have false images of Him This book also shows how various aspects of the spiritual life can emerge from and be fostered by a one on one relationship with a spiritual director Together with concrete guidelines and numerous examples from personal experience this book refers extensively to Sacred Scripture as the foundation for spiritual direction Furthermore since the practice of spiritual direction goes back to the first centuries of the Church the authors turn for guidance to the Doctors of the Church the writings of the saints and the papal magisterium in developing and supporting their insights Spiritual Direction will call spiritual directors to deeper holiness even as they assist others in growing closer to the Father through His loving gaze of mercy
