Lienhard, 2017-06-15 Since the early days of Christianity a tension has existed between the authority of the Bible and the authority of the Church This has been further heightened by the question of Bible translation How does the Word stand firm and yet continue to speak to a changing Church Joseph Lienhard a specialist in Early Christianity examines the evolution of the Christian canon by casting this question against the life of the early Christians Among the topics treated are the Christian use of Jewish Scriptures the Catholic and Protestant Old Testaments the emergence of the New Testament the struggle for the right interpretation of the Scriptures the problem of inspiration and modern attempts to explain the Church's New Testament canon theologically The book questions the use of historicist methods of interpretation and appeals to the Rule of Faith as the right norm for interpreting the Scriptures in the Church Joseph T Lienhard SJ earned his doctorate at the University of Freiburg im Breisgau Germany with two dissertations on Paulinus of Nola and Marcellus of Ancyra His work is in patristics He taught at Marquette University from 1975 to 1990 and since 1990 has been at Fordham University where he is also chair of the department of theology He has published Ministry in the Message of the Fathers of the Church series and other titles The Holy Scriptures, Their Nature, Authority, and Use: Three Essays Charles James Hoare, 1857 The Inspiration and Authority of the Bible Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield, 1948 This volume contains the principal articles by the late Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield having to do with the nature and authority of the Bible A distinctly biblical theologian fully abreast of the critical scholarship of the day and a foe of irrationalism in all its forms faith for him was conviction grounded on evidence it is not surprising that he devoted such exceptional attention to this theme Written from time to time and printed in various publications during his lifetime these articles were included in the volume Revelation and Inspiration published by the Oxford University Press subsequent to his death Foreword God's Word Alone---The Authority of Scripture Matthew Barrett, 2016-09-20 Scholar and pastor Matthew Barrett retraces the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine that Scripture alone is the final and decisive authority for God's people God's Word Alone is a decisive defense of the Bible as the inspired and inerrant Word of God Revitalizing one of the five great declarations of the Reformation sola Scriptura Barrett Analyzes what the idea of sola Scriptura is and what it entails clarifying why the doctrine is truth and why it's so essential to Christianity Surveys the development of this theme in the Reformation and traces the crisis that followed resulting in a shift away from the authority of Scripture Shows that we need to recover a robust doctrine of Scripture's authority in the face of today's challenges and why a solid doctrinal foundation built on God's Word is the best hope for the future of the church This book is an exploration of the past in order to better understand our present and the importance of reviving this indispensable doctrine for the Christian faith and church today THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God's glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches The Doctrine of Sacred Scripture George Trumbull Ladd, 1883
