New Australian Cinema Brian McFarlane, Geoff Mayer, 1992-06-26 The institutions and products of the Australian film industry have been extensively surveyed yet few analyses consider the sources of the film revival that took place in the 1970s and 1980s This book represents a body of thinking about Australian cinema that asks where the origins of films lie The book begins by tracing the indebtedness of Australian cinema to the classical narrative style of Hollywood film making with its firm grasp of melodrama It continues by comparing the problems faced by the high British cinema of the 1940s and 1950s with those faced by Australia in the 1970s and 1980s in the attempts by both countries to establish national film industries New Australian Cinema will increase the scope of the discussion about the revival of Australian cinema and help us to make cultural sense of the films themselves

Australian Cinema Brian McFarlane, 1988 This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo Egypt Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination How can this paradox be explained An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle as accommodating protest These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women s protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence Australian Cinema in the 1990s Ian Craven,2012-10-12 This study is a collection of critical and scholarly analyses of the organisation of the Australian Film Industry since 1990 Particular emphasis is put on globalisation authorship national narrative and film aesthetics The New Australian Cinema Scott Murray,Peter Beilby,1980 Australian Cinema After Mabo Felicity Collins,Therese Davis,2004-10-27 Publisher Description A Companion to Australian Cinema Felicity Collins,Jane Landman,Susan Bye,2019-04-15 The first comprehensive volume of original essays on Australian screen culture in the twenty first century A Companion to Australian Cinema is an anthology of original essays by new and established authors on the contemporary state and future directions of a well established national cinema A timely intervention that challenges and expands the idea of cinema this book brings into sharp focus those facets of Australian cinema that have endured evolved and emerged in the twenty first century The essays address six thematically organized propositions that Australian cinema is an Indigenous screen culture an international cinema a minor transnational imaginary an enduring auteur genre landscape tradition a televisual industry and a multiplatform ecology Offering fresh critical perspectives and extending previous scholarship case studies range from The Lego Movie Mad Max and Australian stars in Hollywood to transnational co productions YouTube channels transmedia and nature cam documentaries New research on trends such as the convergence of television and film digital transformations of screen production and the shifting roles of women on and off screen highlight how established precedents have been influenced by new realities beyond both cinema and the national Written in an accessible style that does not require knowledge of cinema studies or Australian studies Presents original research on Australian actors such as Cate Blanchett and Chris Hemsworth their training branding and path from Australia to Hollywood Explores the films and filmmakers of the Blak Wave and their challenge to Australian settler colonial history and white identity Expands the critical definition of cinema to include YouTube channels transmedia documentaries multiplatform changescapes and cinematic remix Introduces readers to founding texts in Australian screen studies A Companion to Australian Cinema is an ideal introductory text for teachers and students in areas including film and media studies cultural and gender studies and Australian history and politics as well as a valuable resource for educators and other professionals in the humanities and creative arts The Australian Film Revival Susan Barber,2023-01-26 The Australian Film Revival 70s 80s and Beyond explores the matrix of forces artistic cultural economic political governmental and ideological that gave rise to shaped and sustained this remarkable film movement This engaging new study brings fresh perspectives insights and innovative approaches to a variety of films from a diversity of filmmakers Areas of focus include the complex and contentious subjects of masculinity femininity and feminism the maternal as well as the Indigenous road film and the protean Australian gothic During the formative years of the revival Australian films seemed to emerge from out of the
