The New Christmas Activity:

The Economist, 1927 Vowelless Crosswords Frank Longo, 2009-06 What's better than crosswords? That's right, crosswords with no vowels! At first these challenging but fiendishly fun puzzles look like the usual crossword. But there's a devilish twist: you write only the consonants in the boxes, not the vowels. So when you look at the grid, there's no quick way to know exactly how many letters make up the right solution. Plus, because you don't need as many spaces for each word, the phrases can be longer than usual, and that makes the grids wide open and ratchets up the difficulty level. For those who need a little extra help, there's a hints section to tear out and refer to when needed, as well as grids with wordlists explaining, with vowels, what the answers are. Thinking Skills David Cookson, 2004-06 This photocopiable resource provides Thinking Skills activities for each chapter of The New Wider World Second Edition. Written by members of the Thinking Through Geography team, the activities are designed to integrate easily into your GCSE Geography course to motivate students and improve their performance.

It examines the transformatory function of events in the context of development studies as phenomena that can promote and facilitate human development, including social, societal, and individual change.
