The New History James Harvey Robinson, 1912

The New History and the Old Gertrude Himmelfarb, 1987

The New History and the Old is a marvelously written perfectly serious yet vastly entertaining critique of current fashions in the writing of history social history psychoanalytic history quantitative history Marxist and neo Marxist history mental history As the new history is coming to dominate the profession Gertrude Himmelfarb argues it tends to supplant rather than supplement the old which centered on political constitutional diplomatic and intellectual events The effect is not only to transform the discipline of history but also to alter profoundly our sense of the past A mode of history that belittles politics and ideas denigrates the political institutions and intellectual traditions that have shaped our past and severs the continuity between past and present leaving little that is usable in their place This provocative analysis of the revolution in history as it has been called has implications that go well beyond the discipline of history itself It raises fundamental and far reaching questions about the nature of our postmodern society and will undoubtedly arouse a good deal of discussion and debate along broad cultural lines
