The New Marxism Soviet And East European Marxism Since 1956:

The New Marxism Richard T. De George, 1968 The new Marxism Richard Thomas De George, 1968 Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson, 1989 Mao Tse-Tung's Theory of Dialectic F.Y.K. Soo, 2012-12-06 The year 1979 ushered in a new phase in China's long and continuous revolution. Currently this new phase is being symbolically referred to by the Chinese leaders themselves as the New Long March, a continuation of the legendary and historical Long March in terms of modernization which comprises the Four Modernizations: Agriculture, Industry, Science and Technology, and Military Defense. Such an all-encompassing attempt at modernization may appear to some at least to be something new or may indicate a radical shift in her policy. But upon closer examination this decision seems only to reflect an historical continuity in terms of the two major long-term goals of the Chinese Revolution: national independence and modernization or industrialization. The former would make China strong; the latter wealthy. For ever since the Opium War in 1840 and throughout the Revolutions of 1911 and 1949, China has always pursued these two revolutionary goals, though with different emphases at different times. This has been especially true during the past three decades as this twofold goal has dictated all of China's important policies, both domestic and foreign. In other words, while the concrete policies may have appeared to be lacking in unity at times, they have been formulated with the specific intent of achieving national independence and modernization. From this perspective, the New Long March marks the passage of post-Mao China beyond the transition of succession toward the continued pursuit of the same revolutionary goals. Marxism After Marx David McLellan, 1981 Marxism after Marx is the only one-volume comprehensive examination of the work of every major Marxist thinker. The book is divided into five main sections: the German Social Democrats, Russian Marxism, European Marxism between the wars, China and the Third World, and contemporary Marxism in Europe and the United States. Each section contains a valuable list of readings and a complete bibliography. Written by one of the most respected scholars in the field, Marxism after Marx is a detailed, lucid history of Marxist ideas, a reliable guide to the most influential body of thought in our age. Book cover

Liberalism and its Critics Kirk F. Koerner, 2019-11-21 First published in 1985, Liberalism was under increasing attack from both socialists and conservatives towards the end of the twentieth century. This book argues that far from having little to contribute towards solving the problems of the modern world, liberalism is in fact of central importance. It discusses the arguments against liberalism put forward by four major political theorists, refuting the general thrust of their criticisms and taking issue with many points of detail used by them to support their arguments. It analyses the origins of liberalism, discusses its major achievements, and explains why it continues to be a crucially important movement. World Communism, 1964-1969, a Selected Bibliography United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1971 The new Marxism Richard T. De George, 1968 Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels Cecil Eubanks, 2015-04-17 The project to publish the works of Marx and Engels continues, and this book, published in 1984, puts together a comprehensive bibliography of their works either written in or translated into English including books monographs articles chapters and doctoral dissertations together with the works of their interpreters The inclusion of the secondary literature makes this a particularly valuable bibliography and contributes greatly to the understanding of the thought of Marx and Engels

The Soviet Union and Eastern Europe Stephan M. Horak, 1985 Intended to aid librarians in small and medium sized libraries and media centers this annotated bibliography lists 1 555 books focusing on the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe The book is divided into four parts 1 General and Interrelated Themes Union of the Soviet Socialist Republics and Eastern European Countries 2 Russian Empire Prior to 1917 and the USSR 3 USSR Non Russian Republics Jews Other Peoples and 4 Eastern European Countries Each part is arranged by subject with priority given to general studies followed by special studies sections where appropriate Titles in Part 1 focus on economics government and law political theory and communism international relations history language and literature dissent nationalism and religion sociology and social conditions and military affairs Titles in Part 2 deal with anthropology and folklore the arts fine arts and architecture economics education and culture geography demography and population government state and politics diplomacy and foreign relations history military affairs Russian language Russian literature philosophy and political theory psychology and psychiatry religion science and research and sociology Part 3 presents titles related to the Baltic Republics Belorussia Ukraine Caucasian Republics and peoples Central Asian Republics and peoples Jews Moldavians Germans and Tartars and the peoples of Siberia and the Volga Basin The last part focuses on Albania Bulgaria Czechoslovakia Hungary Poland Romania Yugoslavia National minorities and dissent and language and literature LH
