Williams, 2015-05-18 In Christ Died for Our Sins Jarvis J Williams argues a twofold thesis First that Paul in Romans presents Jesus death as both a representation of and a substitute for Jews and Gentiles Second that the Jewish martyrological narratives in certain Second Temple Jewish texts are a background behind Paul s presentation of Jesus death By means of careful textual analysis Williams argues that the Jewish martyrological narratives appropriated and applied Levitical cultic language and Isaianic language to the deaths of the Torah observant Jewish martyrs in order to present their deaths as a representation a substitution and as Israel s Yom Kippur for non Torah observant Jews Williams seeks to show that Paul appropriated and applied this same language and conceptuality in order to present Jesus death as the death of a Torah observant Jew serving as a representation a substitution and as the Yom Kippur for both Jews and Gentiles Scholars working in the areas of Romans Pauline theology Second Temple Judaism atonement in Paul or early Christian origins will find much to stimulate and provoke in these pages

Original Sins Eve L. Ewing, 2025-02-11 A fascinating and eye opening look at how American schools have helped build and reinforce an infrastructure of racial inequality a must read for every American parent and educator Esquire Most Anticipated Books of 2025 Though the argument of this book is bleak it illuminates a path for a more just future that is nothing short of dazzling Oprah Daily Most Anticipated Books of 2025 This book will transform the way you see this country Michelle Alexander author of The New Jim Crow If all children could just get an education the logic goes they would have the same opportunities later in life But this historical tour de force makes it clear that the opposite is true The U S school system has played an instrumental role in creating and upholding racial hierarchies preparing children to expect unequal treatment throughout their lives In Original Sins Ewing demonstrates that our schools were designed to propagate the idea of white intellectual superiority to civilize Native students and to prepare Black students for menial labor Education was not an afterthought for the Founding Fathers it was envisioned by Thomas Jefferson as an institution that would fortify the country s racial hierarchy Ewing argues that these dynamics persist in a curriculum that continues to minimize the horrors of American history The most insidious aspects of this system fall below the radar in the forms of standardized testing academic tracking disciplinary policies and uneven access to resources By demonstrating that it s in the DNA of American schools to serve as an effective and underacknowledged mechanism maintaining inequality in this country today Ewing makes the case that we need a profound reevaluation of what schools are supposed to do and for whom This book will change the way people understand the place we send our children for eight hours a day
