readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1992-09-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Hollywood and Catholic Women Kathryn Schleich,2012-03 In this second edition of her exploration of Catholic women in film and television author Kathryn Schleich presents an in depth feminist point of view while addressing important questions about the role of women in both the Church and Hollywood Throughout Schleich s extensive research she noticed that themes of fear mistrust and even hatred of women were prevalent While examining such deeply ingrained attitudes it soon became evident to Schleich that Catholic women still have a long way to go in Hollywood As she carefully explores the sexual tension between Sister Benedict and Father O Malley in The Bells of St Mary s the brutal murder of Theresa Dunn in Looking for Mr Goodbar and the stereotype shattering Grace Hanadarko of Saving Grace Schleich offers an insightful portrayal of women s oppression within the Catholic Church and explores whether Catholic women are better off today This study encourages contemplation of the place of Catholic women within the ever changing spheres of cinema and television ultimately encouraging movement toward the goal of achieving equal status for women in all realms of life New York Magazine ,1992-06-22 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Divas on Screen Mia Mask,2010-10-01 This insightful study places African American women s stardom in historical and industrial contexts by examining the star personae of five African American women Dorothy Dandridge Pam Grier Whoopi Goldberg Oprah Winfrey and Halle Berry Interpreting each woman s celebrity as predicated on a brand of charismatic authority Mia Mask shows how these female stars have ultimately complicated the conventional discursive practices through which blackness and womanhood have been represented in commercial cinema independent film and network television Mask examines the function of these stars in seminal yet underanalyzed films She considers Dandridge s status as a sexual commodity in films such as Tamango revealing the contradictory discourses regarding race and sexuality in segregation era American culture Grier s feminist camp performances in sexploitation pictures Women in Cages and The Big Doll House and her subsequent blaxploitation vehicles Coffy and Foxy Brown highlight a similar tension between representing African American women as both objectified stereotypes and powerful self defining icons Mask reads Goldberg s transforming habits in Sister Act and The Associate as representative of her unruly comedic routines while Winfrey s daily television performance as self made self help guru echoes Horatio Alger narratives of success Finally Mask analyzes Berry s meteoric success by acknowledging the ways in which Dandridge s career made Berry s possible
