Mass Housing Miles Glendinning, 2021-03-25 Shortlisted for the Alice Davis Hitchcock Medallion 2021 The Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain It will become the standard work on the subject Literary Review This major work provides the first comprehensive history of one of modernism's most defining and controversial architectural legacies the 20th century drive to provide homes for the people Vast programmes of mass housing high rise low rise state funded and built in the modernist style became a truly global phenomenon leaving a legacy which has suffered waves of disillusionment in the West but which is now seeing a dramatic 21st century renaissance in the booming crowded cities of East Asia Providing a global approach to the history of Modernist mass housing production this authoritative study combines architectural history with the broader social political cultural aspects of mass housing particularly the mass politics of power and state building throughout the 20th century Exploring the relationship between built form ideology and political intervention it shows how mass housing not only reflected the transnational ideals of the Modernist project but also became a central legitimizing pillar of nation states worldwide In a compelling narrative which likens the spread of mass housing to a Hundred Years War of successive campaigns and retreats it traces the history around the globe from Europe via the USA Soviet Union and a network of international outposts to its ultimate optimistic resurgence in China and the East where it asks Are we facing a new dawn for mass housing or another great housing failure in the making

The Great Urban Transformation You-tien Hsing, 2010 As China is transformed relations between society the state and the city have become central The Great Urban Transformation investigates what is happening in cities the urban edges and the rural fringe in order to explain these relations In the inner city of major metropolitan centers municipal governments battle high ranking state agencies to secure land rents from redevelopment projects while residents mobilize to assert property and residential rights At the urban edge as metropolitan governments seek to extend control over their rural hinterland through massive scale development projects villagers strategize to profit from the encroaching property market At the rural fringe township leaders become brokers of power and property between the state bureaucracy and villages while large numbers of peasants are dispossessed dispersed and deterritorialized and their mobilizational capacity is consequently undermined The Great Urban Transformation explores these issues and provides an integrated analysis of the city and the countryside elite politics and grassroots activism legal economic and socio political issues of property rights and the role of the state and the market in the property market

Antoni Gaudí Michael Eade, 2024-03-07 An accessible account of the contradictory life and work of the modernist Catalan architect The celebrated art nouveau architect Antoni Gaud was a contradictory figure a deeply religious politically right wing man who nevertheless built revolutionary buildings This book explores Gaudí's life work and influences from Catalan nationalism to the industrial revolution Michael Eaude expertly guides readers through Gaudí's dozen great works including the Sagrada Família that attracts millions of tourists each year Gaudí's life is also chronicled from his provincial upbringing in Reus to his time in Barcelona He later suffered a nervous breakdown became obsessively religious and fused Gothic Baroque and Orientalist architecture into his unique style This brief biography offers an accessible introduction to this perplexing and fascinating life

Experiencing China Detlev Kirchgatter, 2003 If you are planning to enter the burgeoning Chinese economy may be a person with just an interest in this fourth largest country in the world and a population of 1.3 billion people I went to China to discover facts of Chinese life its fantastic progress to see if I could make new friends and above all to separate fact from fiction in my mind In ten months stay of travel acting as a foreign expert I had the opportunity to meet Chinese from every walk of life Those heads of high technology plants to simple students from Tibet to the ancient farmer having lived through the dark ages of the Mao period a period that is not talked about and is best forgotten The adage that East and West shall never meet I would now firmly discard as one of the fictions adhered to in the West For when one delves below the superficiality one will find regardless if in the West or the East humanity has the same wants feels the same pains as well as joys
