 Experience is making a comeback Learn how to repurpose your wisdom At age 52 after selling the company he founded and ran as CEO for 24 years rebel boutique hotelier Chip Conley was looking at an open horizon in midlife Then he received a call from the young founders of Airbnb asking him to help grow their disruptive start up into a global hospitality giant He had the industry experience but Conley was lacking in the digital fluency of his 20 something colleagues He didn't write code or have an Uber or Lyft app on his phone was twice the age of the average Airbnb employee and would be reporting to a CEO young enough to be his son Conley quickly discovered that while he'd been hired as a teacher and mentor he was also in many ways a student and intern What emerged is the secret to thriving as a mid life worker learning to marry wisdom and experience with curiosity a beginner's mind and a willingness to evolve all hallmarks of the Modern Elder In a world that venerates the new bright and shiny many of us are left feeling invisible undervalued and threatened by the digital natives nipping at our heels But Conley argues that experience is on the brink of a comeback Because at a time when power is shifting younger companies are finally waking up to the value of the humility emotional intelligence and wisdom that come with age And while digital skills might have only the shelf life of the latest fad or gadget the human skills that mid career workers possess like good judgment specialized knowledge and the ability to collaborate and coach never expire Part manifesto and part playbook Wisdom Work ignites an urgent conversation about ageism in the workplace calling on us to treat age as we would other type of diversity In the process Conley liberates the term elder from the stigma of elderly and inspires us to embrace wisdom as a path to growing whole not old Whether you've been forced to make a mid career change are choosing to work past retirement age or are struggling to keep up with the millennials rising up the ranks Wisdom Work will help you write your
