Testing North Korea The Next Stage In Us And Rok Policy Task Force Report:

Testing North Korea: The Next Stage in U.S. and ROK Policy Morton I. Abramowitz, Morton Abramowitz, James T. Laney, 2001-09 This task force co chaired by Morton I Abramowitz and James T Laney argues that successful implementation of the Agreed Framework between the United States and North Korea which froze Pyongyang s known nuclear program in exchange for two light water reactors and other economic benefits faces considerable challenges U.S. Nuclear Weapons Policy William James Perry, Brent Scowcroft, Charles D. Ferguson, 2009 The report notes that in the near term nuclear weapons will remain a fundamental element of U S national security For this reason it emphasizes the importance of maintaining a safe secure and reliable deterrent nuclear force and makes recommendations on this front The report also offers measures to advance important goals such as preventing nuclear terrorism and bolstering the nuclear nonproliferation regime Foreword

U.S. Strategy for Pakistan and Afghanistan Richard Lee Armitage, Samuel R. Berger, Daniel Seth Markey, 2010 The Council on Foreign Relations sponsors Independent Task Forces to assess issues of current and critical importance to U S foreign policy and provide policymakers with concrete judgments and recommendations Diverse in backgrounds and perspectives Task Force members aim to reach a meaningful consensus on policy through private and non partisan deliberations Once launched Task Forces are independent of CFR and solely responsible for the content of their reports Task Force members are asked to join a consensus signifying that they endorse the general policy thrust and judgments reached by the group though not necessarily every finding and recommendation Each Task Force member also has the option of putting forward an additional or a dissenting view Members affiliations are listed for identification purposes only and do not imply institutional endorsement Task Force observers participate in discussions but are not asked to join the consensus Book Jacket

A Sharper Choice on North Korea Mike Mullen, Sam Nunn, Adam Mount, 2016-09-01 U.S. Education Reform and National Security Joel I. Klein, Condoleezza Rice, Julia Levy, 2014-05-14 The United States failure to educate its students leaves them unprepared to compete and threatens the country s ability to thrive in a global economy and maintain its leadership role This report notes that while the United States invests more in K 12 public education than many other developed countries its students are ill prepared to compete with their global peers According to the results of the 2009 Program for International Student Assessment PISA an international assessment that measures the performance of 15 year olds in reading mathematics and science every three years U S students rank fourteenth in reading twenty fifth in math and seventeenth in science compared to students in other industrialized countries The lack of preparedness poses threats on five national security fronts economic growth and competitiveness physical safety intellectual property U S global awareness and U S unity and cohesion says the report Too many young people are not employable in an increasingly high skilled and global economy and too many are not qualified to join the military because they are physically unfit have criminal records or have an inadequate level of education The report proposes three overarching policy recommendations implement educational expectations and assessments in subjects vital to protecting national security make structural changes to provide students with good choices and launch a national security readiness audit to hold schools and policymakers accountable for results and to raise public awareness

U.S. Immigration Policy Council on Foreign Relations. Independent Task Force on U.S. Immigration Policy, Jeb Bush, Thomas F. McLarty, Edward H. Alden, 2009 The Council on Foreign Relations sponsors Independent Task Forces to assess issues of current and critical importance to U S foreign policy and provide policy makers with concrete judgments and recommendations Diverse in backgrounds and perspectives Task Force members aim to reach a meaningful consensus on policy through private and nonpartisan deliberations Once launched Task Forces are independent of CFR and solely responsible for the content of their reports Task Force members are asked to join a consensus signifying that they endorse the general policy thrust and judgments reached by the group though not necessarily every finding and recommendation Each Task Force member also has the option of putting forward an additional or dissenting view Members affiliations are listed for identification purposes only and do not imply institutional endorsement Task Force observers participate in discussions but are not asked to join the consensus Book jacket

U.S. Trade and Investment Policy Andrew H. Card, Edward H. Alden, Council on Foreign Relations, Matthew Jon Slaughter, 2011 From American master Ward Just returning to his trademark territory of Forgetfulness and The Weather in Berlin an evocative portrait of diplomacy and desire set against the backdrop of America s first lost war

U.S. Policy Toward the Korean Peninsula Charles L. Pritchard, John H. Tilelli, Scott Snyder, 2010 This Task Force report comprehensively reviews the situation on the peninsula as well as the options for U S policy It provides a valuable ranking of U S interests and calls for a firm commitment from the Obama administration to seek denuclearization of the Korean peninsula backed by a combination of sanctions incentives and sustained political pressure in addition to increased efforts to contain proliferation It notes that China s participation in this effort is vital Indeed the report makes clear that any hope of North Korea s dismantling its nuclear program rests on China s willingness to take a strong stance For denuclearization to proceed China must acknowledge that the long term hazard of a nuclear Korea is more perilous to it and the region than the short term risk of instability The report also recognizes that robust relations between Washington and its allies in the region Japan and South Korea must underpin any efforts to deal with the North Korean problem It looks as well at regime change and scenarios that could lead to reunification of the peninsula At the same time that the Task Force emphasizes the danger and urgency of North Korea s behavior it recognizes and applauds the beneficial U S relationship with South Korea which has proved to be a valuable economic and strategic partner In this vein the Task Force advocates continued close coordination with Seoul and urges prompt congressional passage of the U S South Korea free trade agreement

Defending an Open, Global, Secure, and Resilient Internet Council on Foreign Relations, 2013-06-01 The CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report Defending an Open Global Secure and Resilient Internet finds that as more people and services become interconnected and dependent on the Internet societies are becoming increasingly vulnerable to cyberattacks To support security innovation growth and the free flow of information the Task Force recommends that the United States and its partners work to build a cyber alliance make the free flow of information a part of all future trade agreements and articulate an inclusive and robust vision of Internet governance

North America Council on Foreign Relations, 2014-10-01 This CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report North America Time for a New Focus asserts that elevating and prioritizing the U S Canada Mexico relationship offers the best opportunity for strengthening the United States and its place in the world
