The Nonresidential Missionary A New Strategy And The People It Serves:

Missiology John Mark Terry, 2015-09-01 Thoroughly updated and revised with half of the chapters new to the second edition Missiology equips the reader with a vast graduate level resource on contemporary missions The Importance of Making Available Research as a Competence Course. Missionary Trainee among the Muslims Abiodun Owoade, 2023-05-05 Master s Thesis from the year 2021 in the subject African Studies Culture and Applied Geography language English abstract The purpose of this study is to make the readers to examine and understand the importance of making available research as a competence course for missionary trainees that will be working among the unreached Muslims people group It will share with trainees what has been known about mission research among unreached people groups in order to assist them in doing the cross cultural missionary work effectively It is not with the purpose of making them to become academic researchers who gather information that very few people can use but to help them become researchers who can discover opportunities for preaching the gospel among the unreached and to become researchers who can be actively involved in unreached people groups Culture shock and culture stress are common but also expected and apparently not a primary direct cause of missionary attrition But they certainly affect the quality of the missionary experience and impact the overall resilience of the missionary And lowered resilience certainly does affect missionary attrition One popular Nigerian adage says prevention is better than curing meaning do what you need to do now before it becomes crisis management Proper planning will prevent poor performance while poor preparation will present poor performance Culture shock and culture stress and other factors of attrition for the cross cultural missionary can be avoided with proper training When a missionary heads into an unreached people there are high expectations all around But before they even leave for this difficult endeavor there must be an assurance that they are adequately equipped that their zeal is equally balanced with knowledge The main purpose of this study is to make the readers to understand the importance of making available research as a competence course for missionary trainees that will be working among the unreached Muslims people group This research has focused on thorough examination of the relevant literature and seek to uncover the meaning of doing research as a competence course the ways in which research is valuable in a missionary training program the most effective time in a missionary training program to provide a research training process and the implications of doing research among workers in Muslim communities that result in long term effective ministry New Wineskins for Global Mission: Sharon J. Stockdale, Helen Camlin, 1996-06-01 New Wineskins for Global Mission captures the essence of a groundbreaking conference in 1994 where Episcopalians from all over the United States gathered to embrace their role in global missions Filled with powerful testimonies and a passionate call to action this book reveals the urgent need to invite unreached people groups to the Lord s Table The conference s impact was profound leading participants to engage in prayer generous giving and active involvement in missions Now this collection of plenary speeches and workshops serves as a valuable resource equipping churches and individuals with tools to fulfill the Great Commission and share the gospel in a changing world The Changing Face of World Missions Michael Pocock, Gailyn Van Rheenen, Douglas McConnell, 2005-10 Dramatic changes have taken place in global society and in the church that have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century This guide helps readers understand these trends Living among the Breakage Duane Alexander Miller, 2016-09-23 Around the world people are leaving Islam for Christianity in unprecedented numbers This book seeks to look into the world of some of these converts trying to discern the shape of their newfound faith Why do they convert What challenges do they face And ultimately what do they in their own complex and sometimes difficult circumstances claim to have understood about God that while in Islam they had not In other words what is the content of their contextual theology In seeking to answer these questions Miller looks into the world of an unintentional church plant in the Arab world consisting of believers from a Muslim background visits with groups of Iranian converts in the diaspora and examines the written testimonies of still other converts In a world where Muslim Christian relations are increasingly important and sometimes tendentious this book examines the lived faith and contextual theology of people who have chosen to leave Islam and embrace Christianity The Muslim World Book Review ,1992 World Mission: The Biblical Jonathan Lewis, 1994 Back by popular demand this three volume work is now reprinted as a single volume This manual leads the student into a deeper broader mission understanding and vision by covering the Biblical historical foundations the strategic dimensions and cross cultural considerations The Life That Prays Minette Drumwright, 2001 World Christian ,1991 Evangelical Dictionary of World Missions A. Scott Moreau, 2000 The first comprehensive one volume reference work to consider the history of world missions and contemporary study of the subject from an evangelical perspective Periodica Islamica ,1993 Whole Gospel--whole World William Roscoe Estep, 1994 This sesquicentennial history of the Foreign Mission Board presents world missions as the heartbeat of Southern Baptists Traces the roots of Southern Baptist missions to the visions of William Carey and the Judsons and explores its growth as a driving force within the Southern Baptist Convention What in the World is God Doing? C. Gordon Olson, 1994 Veteran missionary and missiologist C Gordon Olson has distilled his knowledge and experience to produce an introductory text to missions that is marked by its balance between theory and practice Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1993 World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 The Baptist Home Mission Monthly ,1899 Wereld en Zending ,1990 Journal of the ...
