this numerous company down even to bookmaking Winstanley the barber has shed light much or little upon dark recesses By four Oldys Cayley Tytler and Edwards the whole learning of the subject so far as it was for their respective periods available must be admitted to have been most diligently accumulated Yet it will scarcely be denied that there has always been room for a new presentment of Raleigh s personality That the want has remained unsatisfied after all the efforts made to supply it is to be imputed less to defects in the writers than to the intrinsic difficulties of the subject Raleigh s multifarious activity with the width of the area in which it operated is itself a disturbing element
