Young, Female and Black Heidi Safia Mirza, 2005-07-12 First serious study of young black women Author taught Afro American Studies at Brown University USA 1988 9      Lambs of God Marele Day, 1998-04-01 Vegetation grows out of the mouths of stone angels and sheep wander through the chapel For Iphigenia Margarita and Carla the rhythm of nature and the rituals of the Church have joined to make an encompassing whole They pray they do their daily tasks and at the nightly knitting circle they tell stories stitching into their work the bright colours of fairy tale and myth Brambles have enclosed the monastery and the three nuns have forgotten the world outside Until Father Ignatius pushes his way through the undergrowth in the hope of finding prime real estate In seeking to protect the life they so cherish the nuns find themselves capable of drawing on unimagined depths of resourcefulness Rich in smells and texture and often wildly funny Lambs of God draws on beliefs and fears deep within us and weaves them into a tapestry of dazzling originality Lush and quirky full of tangled stories richly comic events and deep symbolism Courier Mail The reason for success is clear Lambs of God is a filmic intensely sensual book with a great idea at its core The Weekend Australian A novel of wit suspense and surprises a disconcerting and potent combination of elements Sunday Age      Emerging Frontiers Marie Brinkman, 2008 Founded in Indian Territory in 1858 the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth met a century later challenges of a new frontier in the church s call to adapt to modern circumstances and in their own awareness of deepening social and ecclesial needs For three decades sisters struggled with conditions that threatened unity issues of governance demands of professional training diverse backgrounds differing experience of communal life developing theology of religious vows Diminishing numbers coupled with need for leadership led to new institutional roles and new forms of ministry Emerging Frontiers records the struggle and its outcome A common past and determination to stay together marked the long search for a renewed common vision A new century brought re dedication to a Vincentian heritage and far flung partnerships in the mission given by Jesus Christ to his people Commitment to those in need especially women and children fidelity to the church faithful relationship with those of means and good will and with the earth transition to sponsorship of institutional ministries many now administered by lay women and men solidarity with all who stand for justice and peace this was the resolution of a renewed Community whose story is told here      Transborder Lives Lynn Stephen, 2007-06-13 Lynn Stephen s innovative ethnography follows indigenous Mexicans from two towns in the state of Oaxaca the Mixtec community of San Agust n Atenango and the Zapotec community of Teotitl n del Valle who periodically leave their homes in Mexico for extended periods of work in California and Oregon Demonstrating that the line separating Mexico and the United States is only one among the many borders that these migrants repeatedly cross including national regional cultural ethnic and class borders and divisions Stephen advocates an ethnographic framework focused on transborder rather than transnational lives Yet she does not disregard the state She assesses the impact migration has had on local systems of government in both Mexico and the United States as well as the abilities of states to police and affect transborder communities Stephen weaves the personal histories and narratives of indigenous transborder migrants together with explorations of the larger structures that affect their lives Taking into account U S immigration policies and the demands of both commercial agriculture and the service sectors she chronicles how migrants experience and remember low wage work in agriculture landscaping and childcare and how gender relations in Oaxaca and the United States are reconfigured by migration She looks at the ways that racial and ethnic hierarchies inherited from the colonial era hierarchies that debase Mexico s indigenous groups are reproduced within heterogeneous Mexican populations in the United States Stephen provides case studies of four grass roots organizations in which Mixtec migrants are involved and she considers specific uses of digital technology by transborder communities Ultimately Stephen demonstrates that transborder migrants are reshaping notions of territory and politics by developing creative models of governance education and economic development as well as ways of maintaining their cultures and languages across geographic distances Catalogue Xavier University (Cincinnati, Ohio),1920

The influence of culture on learning and motivation has been the topic of much research in recent years Educational and psychological researchers are now aware that the findings of their studies may not apply to other cultures and that in this age of globalization and multiculturalism it is very important to examine the applicability of psychoeducational constructs to other cultures Understanding learning and motivational characteristics of students of diverse backgrounds will enable educators to develop appropriate curriculum and teaching strategies to motivate these students The aim of this book is to present research findings and views of scholars and researchers in the field of motivation and learning from a multicultural and international perspective Educators and scholars from different parts of the world have examined recent learning and motivation theories in different cultural contexts in order to explore the dynamics of sociocultural processes affecting student motivation Others have focused on teaching and learning strategies that are known to be effective with culturally diverse students      Women with Vision Susan Carol Peterson,Courtney Ann

Copyright Office,1974      The Arms of God Sherrie Reynolds,2011-03-21 The Arms of God is a love story in which the author weaves together the life stories of the Sisters of St Mary of Namur from their first call to religious life to teaching and mission work to a deeper sense of community during the challenging times that followed Vatican II As beautifully expressed by Sister Gabriella Falling in love with God determines if I will get up in the morning it is the WHY I am moved to do all these things am I called to do it is necessary to continue to remember and cherish our call to listen again to the language of love of the first love of what or Who drew you What gift do I give in return The Sisters journey carries them from the early days of Catholic education in Texas to Africa and the terrible years of the Rwandan genocide and to carrying God's message today in Fort Worth Texas. Their intimate stories draw the reader into the Sisters' lives, sharing laughter in one moment and tears in the next. Join these remarkable teachers, nurses, and missionaries as they accomplish the seemingly impossible while following the path God has placed before them. Sister Patricia shares when you move from believing something to doing something uncomfortable, having once done that, then there's a freedom, a different way of feeling, a different way of understanding what might need to be done. This is a timely story of love, faith, and freedom that challenges readers to listen for the call of God in their own lives.
