A Gendered Approach to the Syrian Refugee Crisis Jane Freedman,Zeynep Kivilcim,Nurcan Özgür Baklacioğlu,2017-02-24 The refugee crisis that began in 2015 has seen thousands of refugees attempting to reach Europe principally from Syria The dangers and difficulties of this journey have been highlighted in the media as have the political disagreements within Europe over the way to deal with the problem. However, despite the increasing number of women making this journey, there has been little or no analysis of women's experiences or of the particular difficulties and dangers they may face. A Gendered Approach to the Syrian Refugee Crisis examines women's experience at all stages of forced migration: from the conflict in Syria to refugee camps in Lebanon or Turkey; on the journey to the European Union; and on arrival in an EU member state. The book deals with women's experiences, the changing nature of gender relations during forced migration, gendered representations of refugees, and the ways in which EU policies may impact differently on men and women. The book provides a nuanced and complex assessment of the refugee crisis and shows the importance of analysing differences within the refugee population. Students and scholars of development studies, gender studies, security studies, politics, and middle eastern studies will find this book an important guide to the evolving crisis. Routledge Handbook of Gender and Feminist Geographies Anindita Datta, Peter Hopkins, Lynda Johnston, Elizabeth Olson, Joseli Maria Silva, 2020-04-08. This handbook provides a comprehensive analysis of contemporary gender and feminist geographies in an international and multi-disciplinary context. It features 48 new contributions from both experienced and emerging scholars, artists, and activists who critically review and appraise current spatial politics. Each chapter advances the future development of feminist geography and gender studies as well as empirical evidence of changing relationships between gender, power, place, and space. Following an introduction by the Editors, the handbook presents original work organized into four parts which engage with relevant issues including violence, resistance, agency, and desire. Establishing feminist geographies, Placing feminist geographies, Engaging feminist geographies, Doing feminist geographies. The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Feminist Geographies will be an essential reference work for scholars interested in feminist geography, gender studies, and geographical thought. Essays on Modern Kurdish Literature Alireza Korangy, Mahlagha Mortezaee, 2023-07-04. Literature, images, and metaphor are often where most of a nation's history is embedded. A study of modern Kurdish literature highlights a fealty to a rich literary past and a rich source of historiography. The articles in this volume address many facets of the literary in the Kurdish world: proverbs, feminist literature, and resistance in literary works, poetry, prose, etc. In the end, the volume offers a general paradigm of the complex literary framework of the Kurds, their continuous resistance for nationhood in their history, and their modern reinventing of the self. An overview of some of the works in modern Kurdish literature points to both asymmetry and commonality in comparative literary studies. These works highlight the thematic reach in Kurdish literary studies. Gender Matters in Global Politics Laura J. Shepherd, 2010-01-21. Beier, 2018-02-02 Responding to security scholars puzzling dearth of attention to children and childhoods the contributors to this volume reveal the ways in which they not only are already present in security discourses but are actually indispensable to them and to the political projects they make possible From zones of conflict to everyday life contexts in the post industrial Global North dominant ideas about childhood work to regulate the constitution of political subjects whilst variously enabling and foreclosing a wide range of political possibilities Whether on the battlefields of Syria in the halls of the UN or the conceptual musings of disciplinary Security Studies claims about or ostensibly on behalf of children are ubiquitous Recognizing children as engaged political subjects however challenges us to bring a sustained critical gaze to the discursive and semiotic deployments of children and childhood in projects not of their making as well as to the ways in which power circulates through and around them This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Security

Remaking Home Maja Korac, 2009 Rather than emphasising boundaries and territories by examining the integration and acculturation of the immigrant or the refugee this book offers insights into the ideas and practices of individuals settling into new societies and cultures It analyses their ideas of connecting and belonging their accounts of the past the present and the future the interaction and networks of relations practical strategies and the different meanings of home and belonging that are constructed in new sociocultural settings The author uses empirical research to explore the experiences of refugees from the successor states of Yugoslavia who are struggling to make a home for themselves in Amsterdam and Rome By explaining how real people navigate through the difficulties of their displacement as well as the numerous scenarios and barriers to their emplacement the author sheds new light on our understanding of what it is like to be a refugee As War Ends James Meernik, Jacqueline H. R. DeMeritt, Mauricio Uribe-López, 2019-07-25 For decades a bitter civil war between the Colombia government and armed insurgent groups tore apart Colombian society After protracted negotiations in Havana a peace agreement was accepted by the Colombian government and the FARC rebel group in 2016 This volume will provide academics and practitioners throughout the world with critical analyses regarding what we know generally about the post war peace building process and how this can be applied to the specifics of the Colombian case to assist in the design and implementation of post war peace building programs and policies This unique group of Colombian and international scholars comment on critical aspects of the peace process in Colombia transitional justice mechanisms the role of state and non state actors at the national and local levels and examine what the Colombian case reveals about traditional theories and approaches to peace and transitional justice Handbook on Migration and Human Rights Ruth Rubio Marín, Dorothy Estrada-Tanck, Benedita Menezes Queiroz, Fulvia Staiano, 2025-09-10 This Research Handbook examines the complex issues faced by migrants and refugees in securing their human rights By challenging and reformulating the crisis narrative often perpetuated by states and international organizations it provides a gendered cutting edge in depth investigation of key themes central to the human rights implications of migration
