TO ESCAPE PURSUIT SHE TOOK ON ANOTHER'S IDENTITY AND FOUND HERSELF MARKED FOR DEATH Maris's work with the local underworld on the huge space station was anything but honest but life was much more pleasant than it had been before the gang's leader had picked her up from the slums Then her boss grabbed a visitor to the station who was asking too many questions only to find out that she was a very important diplomat Worse his prisoner had apparently committed suicide by jumping through an airlock into hard vacuum To avoid dangerous questions from station security he decided to let Maris's corpse be found with the diplomat's IDs but Maris saw through his plot and used those IDs to escape to the planet the Diplomat was about to investigate Unfortunatley she landed in a hornet's nest of corrupt officials conspiring with a local tyrant Surrounded by people who wanted her eliminated the only person she could trust was Gabrel a young officer who set off with her on a cross planet trek to get evidence that would expose the tangled web of corruption Maris was strongly attracted to Gabrel and the feeling seemed to be mutual But then he thought she was a high ranking government agent What would happen when he found that she was only a petty criminal on the run At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management Six Impossible Things Before Breakfast Emily Wallner, 2008-12-10 Six short stories based on the theme of people doing impossible things and overcoming impossible obstacles Writing Academic Texts Differently Nina Lykke, 2014-06-27 This edited volume combines cutting edge research on feminist and intersectional writing methodologies with explorations of links between academic and creative writing practices Contributors discuss what it means for academic writing processes to explore intersectional in between spaces between monolithic identity markers and power differentials such as gender race ethnicity class sexuality and nationality How does such a frame change academic writing How does it make it pertinent to explore new synergies between academic and creative writing In answer to these questions the book offers theories methodologies political and ethical considerations as well as reflections on writing strategies Suggestions for writing exercises developed against the background of the contributors individual and joint teaching practices will inspire readers to engage in alternative writing practices themselves Know Why You Believe K.

Realism and Religion Michael Scott, 2017-09-29 This book draws together a distinguished group of philosophers and theologians to present new thinking on realism and religion The religious realism antirealism debate concerns the questions of God's independence from human beings the nature of religious truth and our access to religious truths Although both philosophers and theologians have written on these subjects there has been little sustained investigation into these issues akin to that found in comparable areas of research such as ethics or the philosophy of science In addition the absence of any agreed approach to the problem underlines both the need for fresh thought on it and the fruitfulness of this area for further research The editors introduction sets the context of the realism debate traces connections amongst the essays which follow and proposes lines for future development and enquiry The contributors present a variety of contrasting positions on key issues in the religious realism debate and each opens up new and important themes Gordon Kaufman Peter Lipton and Simon Blackburn provide the opening chapters and the context for the collection Alexander Bird John Hare Graham Oppy and Nick Trakakis Merold Westphal and John Webster explore topics that are central to the debate This volume of original essays will both introduce newcomers to the field and suggest new lines of research for those already familiar with it

The End of Two Illusions Hamid Dabashi, 2022-04-19 Dismantling the myths that divide Islam and the West this cutting edge work of critical thinking proposes new ways to reread Islamic and world histories Extending from the front page news coverage of our daily lives back into the deepest and most revelatory histories of the last two hundred years and earlier Hamid Dabashi's The End of Two Illusions is a daring provocative and groundbreaking work that dismantles the most dangerous delusions manufactured between two vastly fetishized abstractions Islam and the West With this book Dabashi shows how the civilizational divides imagined between these two cosmic binaries have defined their entanglement in ways that have nothing to do with the lived experiences of either Muslims or the diverse and changing communities scarcely held together by the myth of the West Through detailed historical and contemporary analysis The End of Two Illusions untangles the motivations that produced this global fiction Dabashi demonstrates how the West was an ideological commodity and civilizational mantra invented during the European Enlightenment serving as an epicenter for the rise of globalized capitalist modernity In turn Orientalist ideologues went around the world manufacturing equally illusory abstractions in the form of inferior civilizations in India China Africa Latin America and the Islamic world The result was the projection of Islam and the West as the prototype of a civilizational hostility that has given false explanations and flawed prognoses of our contemporary history with weaponized Islamophobia on one side and militant Islamism on the other as its most palpable manifestations Dabashi argues it is long past time to dismantle this dangerous liaison expose and overcome its perilous delusions and reimagine the world beyond its shimmering mirage The End of Two Illusions is the most iconoclastic work of critical thought and scholarship to emerge in recent memory clearing the way toward a far more liberating imaginative geography of the world we share

Love's Caravan James Patrick, 2023-07-21 Everyone has an imagination but how many of us can say we use it to its full potential Not only Ibn Arabi the greatest Shaykh of Sufism but poets and mystics in every age have developed their imagination to the point where they can apprehend a silence that speaks in symbol and a dynamic stillness that can transform the world This journey starts from where we are as novice meditators in a bustling distracted world and guides us into the mystical imagination with twelve short discussions each illustrated by accessible memorable poems With creative challenges in each chapter you can chart your own exploration by writing a poem painting a picture or making a piece of music using the suggestions as a starting point Stops along the route of this armchair pilgrimage include dreams alchemists Sufi stories bardo states angels synchronicities prophecies a mermaid and a well known crucifixion This book is for seekers yogis and believers of all traditions and at all stages as well as those who simply want to better connect with their creative imagination
