Terrorismo Global:

Jihadism, Foreign Fighters and Radicalization in the EU Inmaculada Marrero Rocha, Humberto Trujillo Mendoza, 2018-11-20 Jihadism Foreign Fighters and Radicalization in the EU addresses the organizational and strategic changes in terrorism in Europe as a result of urban jihadism and the influx of foreign fighters of European nationality or residence Examining the different types of responses to the treatment of radicalization and its consequences in the recruitment of young urban fighters and jihadists this book offers a framework for understanding the process of violent radicalization It critically analyses political and legal responses that have taken place within the European framework whilst also examining a series of functional responses from social and behavioural psychology This book then goes on to develop an explanatory model from an economic standpoint exploring the need to adapt the fight against the financing of terrorism to the changes in the sources of financing jihadist cells and foreign fighters Furthermore the volume draws on experience from the prison sector to assess the process of radicalization and the possibilities of intervention Taking an interdisciplinary approach this book will be of great interest to students of terrorism and counter terrorism radicalization European politics radical Islam and security studies

Eurojihad Angel Rabasa, Cheryl Benard, 2015 Eurojihad examines the scope of Islamist extremism and terrorism and the sources of radicalization in Muslim communities in Europe

Prisons, Terrorism and Extremism Andrew Silke, 2014-02-18 This volume provides an overview of intervention and management strategies for dealing with terrorist and extremist offenders in prisons The management of terrorist and extremist prisoners has long been recognised as a difficult problem in prisons In most countries such offenders are relatively rare but when their numbers increase these prisoners can undermine the effectiveness and safety of the prison system At a global level there is an increasing recognition of the problem of militant jihadi extremists in prison and their ability to recruit new members among other prisoners The numbers of such prisoners are low but growing and as a result prisons are becoming centres of radicalisation indeed in some cases terrorist plots appear to have been based entirely on networks that were radicalised in prison This volume presents an expertly informed assessment of what we know about terrorists extremists and prison exploring the experience of a wide range of countries and of different political movements Drawing critical lessons from historical case studies the book examines critical issues around management strategies radicalisation and deradicalisation reform risk assessment as well as post release experiences The role that prisoners play in the conflicts beyond the jail walls is also examined with case studies illustrating how prisoners can play a critical role in bringing about a peace process or alternatively in sustaining or even escalating campaigns of violence Written by leading experts in the field this volume will be of much interest to students of terrorism counter terrorism criminology security studies and IR in general

Intelligence in Democratic Transitions Sofia Tzamarelou, 2024-08-01 A groundbreaking comparative analysis of three understudied cases of intelligence democratization revealing new insights into main barriers to reform when states transition from authoritarianism Reforming the intelligence services is essential when a state transitions from authoritarianism to democracy But which areas should be reformed how do we know when there has been real transformation and how and where do authoritarian legacies persist Intelligence in Democratic Transitions is a comparative examination of the democratic transitions of Portugal Greece and Spain starting in the 1970s Although these three countries began their transitions around the same time they present significantly different results Sofia Tzamarelou discovers that main barriers to reform are legacies of the past and legacy personnel She does this through the lens of five Security Sector Reform SSR indicators Lustration Control and Oversight Recruitment Targeting and Civil Society Tzamarelou uses primary sources throughout the study including governmental documents and legal statutes such as draft laws bills and presidential decrees paired with outside primary source reporting such as analysis reporting by the CIA She complements this rich primary source material with secondary sources from authors in each country and internationally who specialize in intelligence or who provide historical context Tzamarelou s unique comparative analysis of intelligence democratization using a common framework SSR applied to each country contributes to readers understanding of why and how some reforms fail and others succeed and how the SSR framework can be used in the intelligence arena COMBATENDO A JIHAD ISLÂMICA Shawn

De-Radicalization in the Mediterranean Lorenzo Vidino,2018-07-20 In the past few years the MENA region witnessed a rise in jihadist extremism and radicalization as countries in the area were rocked by a series of deadly terrorist attacks As authorities responded to the threat it became clear that in order to effectively counter the phenomenon traditional repressive measures had to now be accompanied by alternative methods of prevention rehabilitation and dissuasion How have different governments around the Mediterranean responded What sort of alternative measures have been taken How effective have these policies been What further steps can be taken to strengthen the response of the authorities These are just some of the key issues that this ISPI Report seeks to cover The experts in this volume illustrate the policies of contrast prevention and de radicalization that have been adopted by countries in the MENA region revealing emerging trends lessons learned and overviews of this security status Challenges for Human Rights Fernando Falcón y Tella,2007 Nowadays we are fortunate enough to be experiencing a boom in human rights an enormous increase of their importance in the international sphere at all levels political economic social legal and moral For the first time the condition of the individual as citizen and not just as subject has gained importance Individuals and not only states have now become the subjects of international law as a result of the boom in humanitarian law and international criminal law However although there have been many battles won and goals met concerning human rights the war against injustice continues and the fight has not ended It is necessary to stay alert and to avoid a potentially paralyzing self complacency This collection focusses on topics that are particularly relevant for the present era It examines issues such as multiculturalism globalization international criminal justice specifically third and fourth generation rights and within this thematic framework the problems that have come about as a result of the expanding reach of the Internet and of new biomedical advances In addition it explores the increasingly urgent challenge of how to respond to international terrorism in view of worldwide events since September 11 2001 and its resulting aftermath Originally published in Spanish this thought provoking collection will be of interest to human rights scholars and practitioners alike

Organised Criminal Terrorism Inmaculada Rocha, Francesco Seatzu, Katerina Akestoridi, 2024-09-23 In this book contributors engage into the theoretical dialogue about the interplay between terrorism and organised crime Arguing in favour of its existence the authors of the book seek to define the phenomenon of organised criminal terrorism and examine the appropriateness of the international and regional legal frameworks on terrorism and organised crime to address this unitary criminal phenomenon The volume reveals similarities and differences between terrorism and organised crime that support views in favour of new international legal instruments and those that defend the current approach to combat organised criminal terrorism Contributors hope that the book will form the basis for a more informed discussion on the issue

Governing Youth Politics in the Age of Surveillance Maria Grasso, Judith Bessant, 2018-02-06 Drawing on case studies from around the world contributors to this ground breaking book explore a major contemporary paradox on the one hand young people today are at the forefront of political campaigns promoting social rights and ethical ideas that challenge authoritarian orders and elite privileges On the other hand too many governments some claiming to be committed to liberal democratic values social inclusion and youth participation are engaged in repressing political activities that contest the status quo Contributors to this book explore how especially since 9 11 governments state agencies and other traditional power holders around the globe have reacted to political dissent authored by young people While the need to enhance youth political participation is promoted the cases in this book document how states are using everything from surveillance summary offences expulsion from universities gag laws and antiterrorism legislation and even imprisonment to repress certain forms of young people s political activism These responses diminish the public sphere and create civic spaces hostile to political participation by any citizen This book forms part of The Criminalization of Political Dissent series It documents and interprets the many ways contemporary governments and agencies now routinely use various techniques to repress and criminalise political dissent
