Teso In Transformation The Political Economy Of Peasant And Class In Eastern Africa:

Teso in Transformation Joan Vincent,1982 The State and Rural Transformation in Northern Somalia, 1884-1986 Abdi Ismail Samatar,1989 Scandinavia s most famous painter the Norwegian Edvard Munch 1863 1944 is probably best known for his painting The Scream a universally recognized icon of terror and despair A version was stolen from the Munch Museum in Oslo Norway in August 2004 and has not yet been recovered But Munch considered himself a writer as well as a painter Munch began painting as a teenager and in his young adulthood studied and worked in Paris and Berlin where he evolved a highly personal style in paintings and works on paper And in diaries that he kept for decades he also experimented with reminiscence fiction prose portraits philosophical speculations and surrealism Known as an artist who captured both the ecstasies and the hellish depths of the human condition Munch conveys these emotions in his diaries but also reveals other facets of his personality in remarks and stories that are alternately droll compassionate romantic and cerebral This English translation of Edvard Munch s private diaries the most extensive edition to appear in any language captures the eloquent lyricism of the original Norwegian text The journal entries in this volume span the period from the 1880s when Munch was in his twenties until the 1930s reflecting the changes in his life and his work The book is illustrated with fifteen of Munch s drawings many of them rarely seen before While these diaries have been excerpted before no translation has captured the real passion and poetry of Munch s voice This is a translation that lets Munch speak for himself and evokes the primal passion of his diaries J Gill Holland s exceptional work adds a whole new level to our understanding of the artist and the depth of his scream Poverty and Wealth in East Africa Rhiannon Stephens,2022-10-24 Rhiannon Stephens offers a conceptual history of how people living in eastern Uganda have sustained and changed their ways of thinking about wealth and poverty over the past two thousand years Urban Life in Kingston Jamaica Diane Austin-Broos,2017-10-12 This book first published in 1984 recounts the daily life the politics religion and leisure pursuits of Jamaicans in working and middle class Kingston The study is based upon the author s observations of life in Selton Town and Vermont two neighborhoods of Kingston between 1971 and 1982 The author analyses the local social conflicts and ideologies thereby demonstrating how larger issues of class domination and cultural hegemony pervade neighbourhood life The study provides a detailed contextual account of the significance of belonging to different classes It provides a different perspective of Caribbean anthropology combining the techniques of ethnography and political economy Anthropology and Politics Joan Vincent,2022-08-16 In considering how anthropologists have chosen to look at and write about politics Joan Vincent contends that the anthropological study of politics is itself a historical process Intended not only as a representation but also as a reinterpretation her study arises from questioning accepted views and unexamined assumptions This wide ranging cross disciplinary work is a critical review of the anthropological study of politics in the English speaking world from 1879 to the present a counterpoint of text and context that describes for each of three eras both what anthropologists have said about politics and the national and international events that have shaped their interests and concerns It is also an account of how intellectual social and political conditions influenced the discipline by conditioning both anthropological inquiry and the avenues of research supported by universities and governments Finally it is a study of the politics of anthropology itself examining the survival of theses or schools of thought and the influence of certain individuals and departments

Rural Households in Emerging Societies Margaret Haswell, Diana Hunt, 2020-12-17 The constantly changing circumstances of rural life in sub Saharan Africa have brought with them both successes and failures The essays in this volume examine the various pressures and inducements to changing resource use patterns faced by rural households and explore the two way causal relationship between technology and technological change on the one hand and other key elements of rural change demographic environmental economic social and political on the other Contemporary approaches to the introduction of technical innovations are examined and new approaches are proposed Through case studies of particular communities the wide ranging impacts of past experiences are assessed and the causes and consequences of indigenous initiatives are explored

Deadly Developments Stephen and Downs Reyna, 2005-08-04 Ten anthropologists trace the machinations of war and the effects of violence in capitalist states from their formation to the present This collection the newest volume in the War and Society series questions the foundations of classical social theory while investigating local and international conflict through the critical and cross cultural lens of social theory history and anthropology The essays combine to challenge the notion developed by social theorists such as Comte Spencer Durkheim and Engels that war will diminish with the formation and the perpetuation of a capitalist economy and industry The development of capitalist states and the nefarious and violent processes which must occur to reproduce capitalism are rarely realized and then infrequently analyzed Many western and ethnocentric scholarly representations of war succeed in hiding the deadly developments that occur as a result of capitalist state formation and relations

Purity and Exile Liisa H. Malkki, 2012-12-14 In this study of Hutu refugees from Burundi driven into exile in Tanzania after their 1972 insurrection against the dominant Tutsi was brutally quashed Liisa Malkki shows how experiences of dispossession and violence are remembered and turned into narratives and how this process helps to construct identities such as Hutu and Tutsi Through extensive fieldwork in two refugee communities Malkki finds that the refugees current circumstances significantly influence these constructions Those living in organized camps created an elaborate mythico history of the Hutu people which gave significance to exile and envisioned a collective return to the homeland of Burundi Other refugees who had assimilated in a more urban setting crafted identities in response to the practical circumstances of their day to day lives Malkki reveals how such things as national identity historical consciousness and the social imagination of enemies get constructed in the process of everyday life The book closes with an epilogue looking at the recent violence between Hutu and Tutsi in Rwanda and Burundi and showing how the movement of large refugee populations across national borders has shaped patterns of violence in the region

Tensions of Empire Frederick

Cooper, Ann Laura Stoler, 1997-01-07 Carrying the inquiry into zones previous itineraries have typically avoided the creation of races sexual relations invention of tradition and regional rulers strategies for dealing with the conquerors the book brings out features of European expansion and contraction we have not seen well before Charles Tilly The New School for Social Research What is important about this book is its commitment to shaping theory through the careful interpretation of grounded empirically based historical and ethnographic studies By far the best collection I have seen on the subject Sherry B Ortner Columbia University Colonialism and Culture Nicholas B. Dirks, 1992 Provides new and important perspectives on the complex character of colonial history
