

View of the finished cottage from the street and chimney side of the two windows.

The comings and goings of sea captains inspired the doors of this cottage by the sea. Weary sailors would remember the meals served and the respite they would receive in such a home. As returned they might bring passengers from foreign lands to embellish the house. And so the imaginary captains' treasures were interpreted into its design—circular staircases from France, Palladian doors from Virginia, and a bay window from England.

The floor plans for the house and its basic dimensions are included so that you can enjoy them and build the house that suits you. The house is a basic Cape Cod which means it is a simple design. Parts of the walls had to be cut away to make the circular staircase in from the Landing Company. Eventually the entire room and landing windows will be added, and also the chimney and the door.

The basic structure of Marmont's design is perfect for anyone who hasn't much display space and wants a truly different style of structure for weathering the wind to give the house the look of a brick chimney and a fireplace. However, in this version, the house is built to look like a chimney and a fireplace. However, in this version, the house is built to look like a chimney and a fireplace.
