Corporate Conservatives Go to War Charlie Whitham, 2020-05-30 World War II presented a unique opportunity for American business to improve its reputation after years of censure for inflicting the Great Depression upon the nation No employers organization worked harder or devoted greater resources to reviving business prestige during the war than the National Association of Manufacturers which spent millions of dollars on promoting the indispensability of private enterprise to the successful mobilization of the American economy in an uncompromising multi media campaign which spanned the factory floor to the movie theatre Now using unpublished primary sources the full extent of the NAM's wartime mission to raise the stature of American business in the post war era is revealed During the war the NAM erected a vast structure of research on an unprecedented scale numbering more than one hundred persons dedicated to planning the best solutions for restoring American free enterprise capitalism after the war in a direct challenge to the liberal prescriptions of the reigning administration These studies were painstakingly assembled and widely distributed and served as a complimentary arm to the better known pro business propaganda message of the organization What emerges is a unique and telling glimpse into the minds of the corporate class of wartime America that reveals the determination of a major employers organization to exploit the exceptional circumstances of total war to influence both the power brokers in Washington who wrote economic policy and the American public as a whole to embrace a post war future ruled by private enterprise capitalism El-Hi Textbooks

& Serials in Print, 2005, 2005 The Republican Treason Joseph Burrell, 2008 This book is a polemic directed against the Republican Party and the conservative movement drawing largely on their own published statements Alleging that the Republican Party is fascist and treasonous the author defines both fascism and treason and offers quoted testimony in support of his claim He shows that the US policy of political warfare around the world was originated under President Eisenhower and is still going on full force In the wake of World War II the US attacked democratic movements on the false claim of fighting communism Now democratic movements are targeted on the false claim of fighting terrorism suggesting that they are a threat to US security Deciphering some of the code words and unmasking the misleading motivations that have been used to make US citizens support war the book is a guide to reading between the lines of Washington news briefs

and campaign rhetoric The author discusses the hypocritical nature of the Republican Party and describes an important change in this country s foreign policy from the Truman administration s containment of communism to a new policy of political warfare that has held sway ever since The narrative analyzes the Republican Party s overblown and misdirected anti communism and its fascist orientation Publisher s description
