Introducción a la literatura española a través de los textos Asunción Barroso Gil, 1995-01-01 Esta obra no pretende ser un manual de Historia de la Literatura sino más bien llamar la atención del lector al hilo de unas reflexiones sugeridas sobre los aspectos más significativos estilístico literarios lingüísticos socio culturales etc de los textos literarios el lector queda así liberado de todo prejuicio extraliterario para una recepción espontánea del texto y en condiciones de ejercer una auténtica crítica personal del mismo

El texto puesto en escena Barbara Louise Mujica, Anita K. Stoll, 2000 New essays on the performance of Spanish Golden Age drama Diverse aspects of the performance of Golden Age plays are explored in this volume ranging in approach from the theoretical to the concrete and from the historical to the contemporary Several essays focus on staging and performance in sixteenth and seventeenth century Spain examining areas such as audience reception adaptations of Golden Age plays to the Italian stage ways of representing the supernatural in hagiographic plays and the participation of women in the theatre Other articles concentrate specifically on the text highlighting such issues as the representation of violence while a third group deals with modern productions looking at issues involving casting and staging for contemporary audiences and including semiological analyses of actual performances Overall the book reflects the very latest research in comedy studies Spanish language

Celebrations and Connections in Hispanic Literature Andrea Morris, Margaret Parker, 2009-03-26 The volume Celebrations and Connections in Hispanic Literature is itself a celebration of a tradition of scholarly dialogue in a relaxed festive atmosphere The articles included here began as papers presented at the 25th Anniversary Edition of the Biennial Louisiana Conference on Hispanic Languages and Literatures held in Baton Rouge Louisiana February 23-24 2006 Each of the authors responds in innovative ways to the idea of connecting texts contexts and genres as well as to the disconnect that is often present between what we perceive as Hispanic identity and the experience of those left on the margin Topics include Celebrating and Rewriting Difference De colonized Identities Word and Image in the Spanish Golden Age and Latin American Literature and Politics among others The collection is demonstrative of current trends in Hispanic literary and cultural criticism which are increasingly less bound by traditional regional and temporal constructs While each author's research is rooted in a specific socio-historic context their combined contributions to the present volume provide a far-reaching perspective that expands the notion of text to go beyond the literary and engage a multitude of disciplines it emphasizes the often illuminating connections among literary and cultural texts which can be drawn when one conceives of Hispanism and its literary and cultural fields as shaped by trends and issues rather than divided by periods and regions What strikes me most is the newness of each piece While each is very well informed none rehearses old historical or theoretical ground more than is absolutely necessary but rather presents either a new or overlooked text or offers a new approach Leslie Bary University of Louisiana Lafayette An impressive array of well established and younger scholars has produced a volume whose scope is the entire Hispanic world extending from the Golden Age to the contemporary era This volume will be of interest to all scholars and critics of Hispanic literature as well as to historians and political scientists Many of the essays challenge traditional assumptions about the colonization of the Hispanic world as well as the motivations for the revolutions for independence whose influence is still strongly alive in contemporary treatments of fundamental questions of national identity race class and gender C Chris Soufas Jr Tulane University Introducción a la literatura española a través de los textos ,1979 Homage to Bruno Damiani F.
