Textschriftcodex Quellenkundliche Arbeiten Aus Dem Institut Fur Österreichische Geschichtsforschung:

Text - Schrift - Codex Christoph Egger,2000 Visions of Kinship in Medieval Europe Hans Hummer,2018-05-03 What meaning did human kinship possess in a world regulated by Biblical time committed to the primacy of spiritual relationships and bound by the sinews of divine love In the process of exploring this question Hans Hummer offers a searching re examination of kinship in Europe between late Roman times and the high middle ages the period bridging Europe s primitive past and its modern future Visions of Kinship in Medieval Europe critiques the modernist and Western bio genealogical and functionalist assumptions that have shaped kinship studies since their inception in the nineteenth century when Biblical time collapsed and kinship became a signifier of the essential secularity of history and a method for conceptualizing a deep prehistory guided by autogenous human impulses Hummer argues that this understanding of kinship is fundamentally antagonistic to medieval sentiments and is responsible for the frustrations researchers have encountered as they have tried to identify the famously elusive kin groups of medieval Europe He delineates an alternative ethnographic approach inspired by recent anthropological work that privileges indigenous expressions of kinship and the interpretive potential of native ontologies This study reveals that kinship in the middle ages was not biological primitive or a regulator of social mechanisms nor was it traceable by bio genealogical connections In the Middle Ages kinship signified a sociality that flowed from convictions about the divine source of all things and which wove together families institutions and divinities into an expansive eschatological vision animated by the most righteous principle of love Rome Across Time and Space Claudia Bolgia,Rosamond McKitterick,John Osborne,2011-04-07 An exploration of the significance of medieval Rome both as a physical city and an idea with immense cultural capital The Construction of Communities in the Early Middle Ages Richard Corradini,Maximilian Diesenberger,Helmut Reimitz,2003 This volume provides a complex discussion of the variety of social efforts which were undertaken to create meaningful communities in the process of the formation of the early medieval gentes and kingdoms in the post Roman west Music and the Making of Medieval Venice Jamie L. Reuland,2023-10-26 Music played an essential part in raising the city of Venice and in founding the empire on which its fortunes would depend This book focuses on a set of musical projects played out in liturgy and civic ritual that formed the city s history and framed and interpreted its unique material culture as it was in the process of taking shape Jamie L Reuland shows the state s most imaginative musical endeavors bound up with legal culture stemming from the chancery s engines of historiography or situated within the rich material environment of relics and reliquaries mosaics and wall paintings icons and statues Arguing for music s technical ability to fabricate a sense of place and give form to history Reuland recovers Venice s fascinating early propensity for a statecraft of the imagination the consequences of which would be the better known history of its material decay Motherhood, Religion, and Society in Medieval Europe, 400-1400 Lesley Smith,Conrad Leyser,2016-04-22 Who can concentrate on thoughts of Scripture or philosophy and be able to endure babies crying Will he put up with the constant muddle and squalor which small children bring into the home The wealthy can do so but philosophers lead a very different life So according to Peter Abelard did his wife Heloise state in characteristically stark terms the antithetical demands of family and scholarship Heloise was not alone in making this assumption Sources from Jerome onward never cease to remind us that the life of the mind stands at odds with life in the family For all that we have moved in the past two generations beyond kings and battles fiefs and barons motherhood has remained a blind spot for medieval historians Whatever the reasons the result is that the historiography of the medieval period is largely motherless The aim of this book is to insist that this picture is intolerably one dimensional and to begin to change it The volume is focussed on the paradox of motherhood in the European Middle Ages to be a mother is at once to hold great power and by the same token to be acutely vulnerable The essays look to analyse the powers and the dangers of motherhood within the warp and weft of social history beginning with the premise that religious discourse or practice served as a medium in which mothers and others could assess their situation defend claims and make accusations Within this frame three main themes emerge survival agency and institutionalization The volume spans the length and breadth of the Middle Ages from late Roman North Africa through ninth century Byzantium to late medieval Somerset drawing in a range of types of historian including textual scholars literary critics students of religion and economic historians The unity of the volume arises from the very diversity of approaches within it all addressed to the central topic

From Clovis to Charlemagne: Frankish History and Historians Roger Collins, 2025-09-25 This book is a collection of papers on Frankish historiography in the Merovingian and early Carolingian periods from the late sixth to early ninth centuries and studies numerous individual texts evaluating their witness to the events they describe It also includes hitherto unpublished items on the so called Chronicle of Fredegar in both its original and eighth century versions and also an entirely new article on the Merovingian dynastic crisis of 613 along with a general introduction and a bibliography of its author's writing Particular attention is focused on the element of deception deliberate or otherwise in the narrative accounts of some of the Frankish histories and chronicles and on the way they were written in order to promote specific interpretations of certain individuals and events or in some cases to conceal their very existence Certain central episodes such as the imperial coronation of Charlemagne are examined to detect the ways in which they were interpreted and presented in contemporary texts From Clovis to Charlemagne Frankish History and Historians will appeal to academics and students interested in the history of early medieval France the processes of historical composition in that period the study of manuscripts relating to it and the wider questions about historical understanding and the interpretation of evidence beeinflussten wissenschaftlichen Beiträgen zu widmen Flodoard of Rheims and the Writing of History in the Tenth Century Edward Roberts, 2019-09-05 A major reassessment of the Frankish historian Flodoard of Rheims one of the tenth century's most intriguing but neglected narrators The Resources of the Past in Early Medieval Europe Clemens Gantner, Rosamond McKitterick, Sven Meeder, 2015-02-05 This volume analyses the importance of history the textual resources of the past and the integration of Christian and imperial Rome into the cultural memory of early medieval Europe within the wider question of identity formation The case studies in this book shed new light on the process of codification and modification of cultural heritage in the light of the transmission of texts and the extant manuscript evidence from the early Middle Ages The authors demonstrate how particular texts and their early medieval manuscript representatives in Italy Francia Saxony and Bavaria not only reflect ethnic social and cultural identities but themselves contributed to the creation of identities gave meaning to social practice and were often intended to inspire guide change or prevent action directly or indirectly These texts are shown to be part of a cultural effort to shape the present by restructuring the past
