Textual Scholarship An Introduction:

Textual Scholarship David C. Greetham, 2015-10-28 First published in 1994 This fully revised and updated edition of the bestselling Textual Scholarship covers all aspects of textual theory and scholarly editing for students and scholars As the definitive introduction to the skills of textual scholarship the new edition addresses the revolutionary shift from print to digital textuality and subsequent dramatic changes in the emphasis and direction of textual enquiry Textual Scholarship David C. Greetham, 2015-01-12 Addresses the spectrum of textual scholarship Designed for editors literary and textual critics and students this is an illustrated historical and methodological survey Textual Scholarship David C. Greetham, 1994

Introduction to Scholarship in Modern Languages and Literatures David G. Nicholls, 2015-01-01 The third edition of the MLA's widely used Introduction to Scholarship in Modern Languages and Literatures features sixteen new essays by leading scholars Designed to highlight relations among languages and forms of discourse the volume is organized into three sections Understanding Language provides an overview of the field of linguistics with special attention to language acquisition and the social life of languages Forming Texts offers tools for understanding how speakers and writers shape language it examines scholarship in the distinct but interrelated fields of rhetoric composition and poetics Reading Literature and Culture continues the work of the first two sections by introducing major areas of critical study The nine essays in this section cover textual and historical scholarship interpretation comparative cultural and translation studies and the interdisciplinary topics of gender sexuality race and migrations among others As in previous volumes an epilogue examines the role of the scholar in contemporary society Each essay discusses the significance underlying assumptions and limits of an important field of inquiry traces the historical development of its subject introduces key terms outlines modes of research now being pursued postulates future developments and provides a list of suggestions for further reading This book will interest any member of the academic community seeking a review of recent scholarship while it provides an indispensable resource for undergraduate and graduate students of modern languages and literatures Textual Scholarship David Greetham, 2013-01-01 An Introduction to Bibliographical and Textual Studies Craig S. Abbott, William Proctor Williams, 2014-08-01 To a reader of Joyce's Ulysses it makes a difference whether one of Stephen Dedalus's first thoughts is No mother as in the printed version or No mother as in the manuscript The scholarship surrounding such textual differences and why this discipline should concern readers and literary scholars alike is the focus of William Proctor Williams and Craig S. Abbott's acclaimed handbook This updated fourth edition outlines the study of texts composition revision physical embodiments process of transmission and manner of reception describes how new technologies such as digital imaging and electronic tagging have changed the way we produce read preserve and research texts discusses why these matters are central to a historical understanding of literature and shows how the insights methods and products of bibliographical and textual studies can be applied to other branches of scholarship An Introduction to Bibliographical and Textual

Studies William Proctor Williams, Craig S. Abbott, 2009 To a reader of Joyce's Ulysses it makes a difference whether one of Stephen Dedalus's first thoughts is 'No mother' as in the printed version or 'No mother' as in the manuscript The scholarship surrounding such textual differences and why this discipline should concern readers and literary scholars alike is the focus of William Proctor Williams and Craig S. Textual Awareness Dirk Van Hulle, 2009-12-14 Aware of the act of writing as a temporal process many modernist authors preserved numerous manuscripts of their works which themselves thematized time Textual Awareness analyzes the writing processes in James Joyce's Finnegans Wake Marcel Proust's la recherche du temps perdu and Thomas Mann's Doktor Faustus and relates these to Anglo American French and German theories of text By relating theory to practice this comparative study reveals the links between literary and textual criticism A key issue in both textual criticism and the so called crisis of the novel is the tension between the finished and the unfinished After a theoretical examination of the relationship between genetic and textual criticism Dirk Van Hulle uses the three case studies to show how at each stage in the writing process the text still had the potential of becoming something entirely different how and why these geneses proceeded the way they did how Joyce Proust and Mann allowed contingencies to shape their work how these authors recycled the words of their critics in order to inoculate their works against them how they shaped an intertextual dimension through the processing of source texts and reading notes and how text continually generated more text Van Hulle's exploration of process sheds new light on the remarkable fact that so many modernist authors protected their manuscripts implying both the authors' urge to grasp everything and their awareness of the dangers of their encyclopedic projects Textual Awareness offers new insights into the artificiality of the artifact the novel that are relevant to the study of literary modernism in general and the study of James Joyce Marcel Proust and Thomas Mann in particular Dirk Van Hulle is Assistant Professor of English and German Literature University of Antwerp

Textual Studies and the Common Reader Alexander Pettit, 2000 Textual Studies and the Common Reader collects eleven original essays by editors of literary texts and theorists concerned about the implications of what such editors do The volume's organizing theme is textual studies the domain of which in one contributor's words is the genesis transmission and editing of texts The contributors seek to extend the discussion about textual studies beyond any narrow professional scope thus none of the essays assumes any training in textual studies Also the focus of the book is on the literary genre most familiar to most readers the novel Authors discussed include Willa Cather Joseph Conrad Theodore Dreiser William Faulkner D. H. Lawrence William Makepeace Thackeray and Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley Many people read literary works but few do so with a steady sense of their constructedness as texts of the ways in which genesis transmission and editing have shaped them as conveyors of meaning This book shows that the experience of reading is more rewarding for such awareness The Margins of the Text David C. Greetham, 1997 These essays challenge the positivist patriarchal assumptions of earlier approaches to textual criticism
