

Jules Massenet

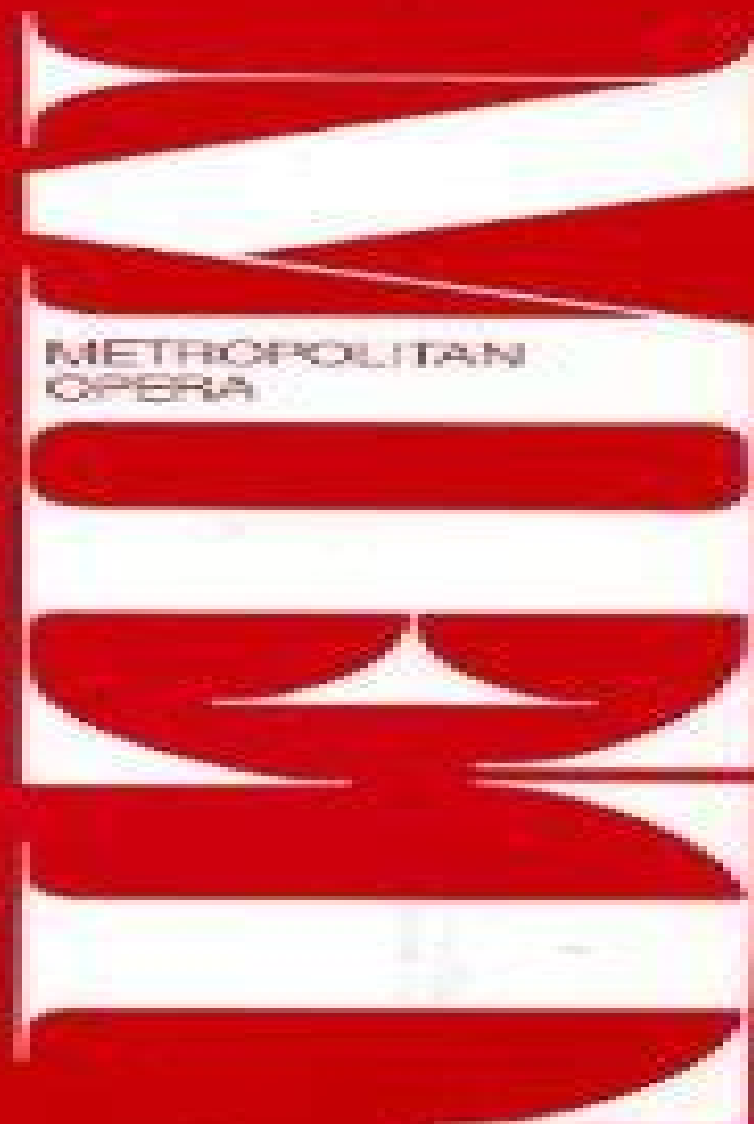

Thaïs

Thaïs, a young girl, is brought to the convent of Saint-Paul by her mother, who has died. She is placed in the care of the Abbess, who is a strict and pious woman. Thaïs, however, is a free spirit and does not conform to the rules of the convent. She is attracted to the world and to the pleasures of the flesh. She is eventually seduced by a man named Zerkow, who is a wealthy and powerful figure. Zerkow takes Thaïs away from the convent and they live together in a life of luxury and pleasure. Thaïs, however, is not happy in this life. She feels that she has lost her soul and that she is living a life of sin. She eventually returns to the convent, where she is welcomed back with open arms. She spends the rest of her life in the convent, where she finds peace and happiness.
