That Bowling Alley On The Tiber Tales Of A Director:

That Bowling Alley on the Tiber Michelangelo Antonioni, 1986 Gathers thirty three story ideas for films by the Italian director noted for his use of silence omission and suggestion That Bowling Alley on the Tiber Michelangelo Antonioni, 1983 That Bowling Alley on the Tiber Michelangelo Antonioni, 2025 Thirty three richly suggestive stories by Antonioni that range in length from a single paragraph to several pages Not stories in the usual sense these are instead a series of evocative sketches or narrative nuclei each the genesis for a possible future film Although he ultimately didn't develop most of these ideas further encountering them now provides a unique glimpse into Antonioni's mind and cinematic point of view Back cover Antonioni and the Aesthetics of Impurity Matilde Nardelli, 2020-09-04 The book offers a radical rethinking of Michelangelo Antonioni's work It argues against prevalent understandings of it in terms of both cinematic purity and indebtedness to painting Backstory 5 Patrick McGilligan, 2010 Looks at how Hollywood is changing to meet economic and creative challenges This title probes the working methods of a diverse range of screenwriters to explore how they come up with their ideas how they go about adapting a stage play or work of fiction and whether their variegated life experiences contribute to the success of their writing Roland Barthes and Film Patrick Ffrench, 2019-10-31 Suspicious of what he called the spectator's sticky adherence to the screen Roland Barthes had a cautious attitude towards cinema Falling into a hypnotic trance the philosopher warned an audience can become susceptible to ideology and myth In this book Patrick Ffrench explains that although Barthes was wary of film he engaged deeply with it Barthes thought was Ffrench argues punctuated by the experience of watching films and likewise his philosophy of photography culture semiotics ethics and theatricality have been immensely important in film theory Focusing particularly on the essays The Third Meaning and On Leaving the Cinema and the acclaimed book Camera Lucida Ffrench examines Barthes writing and traces a persistent interest in films and directors from Fellini and Antonioni to Eisenstein the Marx Brothers and Hitchcock Ffrench explains that although Barthes found pleasure in leaving the cinema disconnecting from its dangerous allure by a literal exit or by forcefully breaking the trance he found value in returning to the screen anew Barthes delved beneath the pull of progressing narrative and the moving image by becoming attentive to space and material aesthetics This book presents an invaluable reassessment of one of the most original and subtle thinkers of the twentieth century a figure indebted to the movies

Michelangelo Antonioni Seymour Chatman, 2004 Containing many illustrations from Michelangelo Antonioni's own archives this text explores his life and career from his earliest documentaries to his latest collaborations Publisher's description Michelangelo Antonioni Bert Cardullo, 2008 Collected interviews with the Italian filmmaker who directed L'avventura La notte Blow Up and Zabriskie Point Realm of Unknowing Mark Rudman, 2012-01-01 Powerful meditations on the nature and limits of human understanding Italian Neorealist Cinema Christopher Wagstaff, 2007-12-29 The end of the Second World War saw the emergence of neorealist film in Italy In Italian Neorealist Cinema Christopher Wagstaff analyses three neorealist films that have had significant influence on filmmakers around the world Wagstaff treats these films as assemblies of sounds and images rather than as representations of historical reality If Roberto Rossellini's Roma città aperta and Pais and Vittorio De Sica's Ladri di biciclette are still half a century after they were made among the most highly valued artefacts in the history of cinema Wagstaff suggests that this could be due to the aesthetic and rhetorical qualities of their assembled narratives performances locations lighting sound mise en scène and montage This volume begins by situating neorealist cinema in its historical industrial commercial and cultural context and makes available for the first time a large amount of data on post war Italian cinema Wagstaff offers a theoretical discussion of what it means to treat realist films as aesthetic artefacts before moving on to the core of the book which consists of three studies of the films under discussion Italian Neorealist Cinema not only offers readers in Film Studies and Italian Studies a radically new perspective on neorealist cinema and the Italian art cinema that followed it but theorises and applies a method of close analysis of film texts for those interested in aesthetics and rhetoric as well as cinema in general
