I think it's beautiful how a star's light travels the universe, long after it dies.
That's what I want to be in this world — someone whose light lingers on after I'm gone.

The Poetry & Prose of Coleridge, Lamb & Leigh Hunt S. E. Winbolt, 1920 Reading poetry Peter Barry, 2016-05-16 Witty direct and articulate Peter Barry illustrates the key elements of poetry at work covering many different kinds of verse from traditional forms to innovative versions of the art such as concrete poetry minimalism and word free poems The emphasis is on meanings rather than words looking beyond technical devices like alliteration and assonance so that poems are understood as dynamic structures creating specific ends and effects The three sections cover progressively expanding areas Reading the lines deals with such basics as imagery diction and metre Reading between the lines concerns broader matters such as poetry and context and the reading of sequences of poems while Reading beyond the lines looks at theorised readings and the textual genesis of poems from manuscript to print Reading poetry is for students lecturers and teachers looking for new ways of discussing poetry and all those seriously interested in poetry whether as readers or writers

The poetry of Samuel Taylor Coleridge [a selection] ed. by R. Garnett Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Samuel Taylor [poetical works Coleridge (selections)], 1898

Selected Poetry Samuel Coleridge, 2003-06-26 Living in a revolutionary age Coleridge's poetry was written in a spirit of moral and emotional inquiry into the absolutes of the human condition He is best known for his visionary poetry Kubla Khan and his ballads The Rime of the Ancient Mariner but he used and transformed a variety of verse forms from the sonnet to the conversation poem on subjects as diverse as nature love and politics This selection calls attention to the range of Coleridge's work its strong autobiographical content and its artistic development throughout his career The old chronological form has been abandoned and the poems are organised according to genre with each section displaying its own individual development in craft and theme
