Chinese Medicine and Transnational Transition during the Modern Era Md. Nazrul Islam, 2021-04-22 This volume analyses the transition of Chinese medicine during the modern era and the development of product and service niches in selected countries China Malaysia Japan and the Philippines By investigating the major actors behind the transition it explores in what way and to what extent these actors affect the transition It argues that the transnational transition of Chinese medicine is caused not only by spontaneous cultural and social factors i e population growth technological innovation and acculturation but also by hegemonic political and economic factors such as Western influence adoption of the philosophy of modern state and global commodification of indigenous medical specialties

History and Philosophy of Chinese Medicine Ya Tu, Tingyu Fang, 2015-01-15 In this book we endeavor to introduce readers to the cultural background origins and historical development of traditional Chinese medicine We surveyed the most important events in its long history and the conditions that influenced its development including the cultural and philosophical ideas and assumptions that led to the development of the particular methods and techniques of healing that characterize Chinese medicine Our goal is not to give an exhaustive survey of the history and philosophy of Chinese medicine but rather to convey the patterns of its development and allow readers to gain an understanding of the distinctive features of traditional Chinese medicine

Chinese Herbal Drug Research Trends Felix M. Ching, 2007 Chinese Herbal Medicine part of a larger healing system called Traditional Chinese Medicine TCM which also includes acupuncture massage dietary advice and exercise TCM is a popular method of treatment is actually called Chinese Drug Therapy in China because it uses a wide variety of substances and therapeutic modalities Plant animal and mineral substances are all included in the Materia Medica of Chinese Drug Therapy The earliest uses date back at least 4000 years to the Shang dynasty Characters representing medicinal substances have been found carved into oracular bone fragments These were used diagnostically by the Wu Shaman of this time The earliest materia Medica the Sheng Nung Peng Tsao recorded over 10 000 medicinal substances While there seems to be an almost unlimited amount of medicinal substances the most commonly used number around 200 Increased attention has begun being given to the field due to several factors The apparent success stories in many cases The failure of Western medicine in many disorders and Realisation on the part of Western researchers that successful drugs can be designed on the basis of Chinese herbal drugs This new book presents the latest research in the field
