structuralism concluding with postmodern critiques and contemporary global perspectives The book gives equal importance to Western and non Western traditions including discussions on Gautam Buddha Mahatma Gandhi and Dr B R Ambedkar Themes such as scientific rationality secular morality social justice feminism postcolonialism and environmental ethics are thoughtfully addressed offering a truly global and inclusive view of intellectual development Designed primarily for Readers of philosophy history political science sociology and cultural studies Intellectual History Modern Thought is ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate curricula It also serves as a valuable resource for general readers interested in the history of ideas and their relevance to contemporary issues Rich in content and critical perspective this book not only informs but also encourages reflection on the role of ideas in shaping human experience and societal transformation Science, Art and Nature in Medieval and Modern Thought

A.C. Crombie,1990-07-01 The author sees the history of Western Science as the history of a vision and an argument initiated by the ancient Greeks in their search for principles at once of nature and of argument itself This scientific vision explored and controlled by argument and the diversification of both vision and argument by scientific experience and by interaction with the wider contexts of intellectual culture constitute the long history of European scientific thought Underlying that development have been specific commitments to conceptions of nature and of science and its intellectual and moral assumptions accompanied by a recurrent critique their diversification has generated a series of different styles of scientific thinking and of making theoretical and practical decisions which the work describes The Routledge International Handbook of Contemporary Muslim Socio-Political Thought Lutfi

Sunar,2021-08-30 This volume unfolds the ebbs and flows of Muslim thought in different regions of the world as well as the struggles between the different intellectual discourses that have surfaced against this backdrop With a focus on Turkey Egypt Iran and the Indian subcontinent regions that in spite of their particular histories and forms of thought are uniquely placed as a mosaic that illustrates the intertwined nature of the development of Muslim socio political thought it sheds light on the swing between right and left in different regions the debates surrounding nationalism the influence of socialism and liberalism the rise of Islamism and the conflict between state bureaucracy and social movements Exploring themes of civil society and democracy it also considers current trends in Muslim thought and possible future directions As such it will appeal to scholars across the fields of sociology anthropology political science history and political economy as well as those with interests in the study of religion the development of Muslim thought and the transformation of Muslim societies in recent decades The Rise of Eurocentrism Vassilis Lambropoulos,2019-10-08 In the controversy over political correctness the canon and the curriculum the role of Western tradition in a post modern world is often debated To clarify what is at stake Vassilis Lambropoulos traces the ideology of European culture from the Reformation focusing on a key element of Western tradition the act of interpretation as a distinct practice of understanding and a civil right Championed by Protestants insisting on independent interpretation of scripture this ideal of autonomy ushered in the era of modernity with its essentialist philosophy of universal man and his aesthetic understanding of the world After explaining the dominance of European culture through the combined archetypes of Hebraism reason and morality and Hellenism spirit and art Lambropoulos shows how the rule of autonomy has been transformed into the aesthetic disinterested contemplation of things in themselves Arguing that it is time to restore the socio political dimension to the movement of autonomy he proposes that a genealogy of the Hebraic Hellenic archetypes can help us evaluate more recent models like the Afrocentric one and redefine the controversy surrounding education Eurocentrism and cultural politics

Religion and Modern Thought Victoria S. Harrison, 2007
