Untying God's "Nots" Troy J. Edwards, 2016-07-12 If a nation marches against you know that I am not behind it Isaiah 54:15a The Voice A common phrase used by many Christians particularly when there is some tragic event is that God is in control Many people mean different things by the statement however the majority of those who use the statement believe that God initiated the tragic event and had a secret mysterious plan to bring some unknown good from it We believe that such a teaching casts aspersions on God s character Besides the origins of this teaching is not from the Bible but is derived from pagan philosophy Throughout these pages we will look at a number of arguments and Scriptures used by proponents of this teaching and show the reader that it does not line up with the Bible s teaching about God The reader will also learn that this teaching is a tool of Satan to keep Christians passive so that they will not stand against him in the authority of Christ s victory over him

More than a Symbol Stanley K. Fowler,2007-03-01 More than a Symbol seeks to demonstrate that the interpretation of baptism as a mere symbol bearing witness to a previously completed conversion experience is inadequate both as a summary of biblical teaching and as a summary of Baptist thought Starting with H Wheeler Robinson and culminating in the work of G R Beasley Murray British Baptists in the twentieth century argued effectively that baptism must be interpreted as an effective sign a meeting place of grace and faith a sacrament rather than a mere symbol This book argues that the New Testament exegesis that is at the heart of this reformulation is fundamentally accurate and that the resulting system is theologically coherent The book also argues that this view is not a Baptist novelty but is rather a recovery of the foundational Baptist thought of the seventeenth century
