Dreamcatcher Steve Theodore Georgiou,2002 On the holy island of Patmos where St John wrote The Book of Revelation nearly 2 000 years ago a young man experiences his own revelations with the help of a spiritual mentor Robert Lax the man Thomas Merton once said was born with the deeper sense of who God was These warm wonderful insights are for anyone searching for wisdom Circus Days and Nights Robert Lax,2009-06-02 Though many hold him to be one of the greatest American poets of this century Lax has maintained a low profile living and writing in seclusion on the Greek island of Patmos In Circus Days Nights Lax s three great long poems on the circus Circus of the Sun Mogador s Book and Sunset City are collected together for the first time placing this early masterwork in the position within American literature that it so richly deserves Each of the three poems in this collection expresses a reverence for the acts of daring beauty and grace that make the circus the singular event it is What also emerges is the drawing of a link between this world of the circus wherein a tent is erected acts are performed and then the tent is disassembled only to be re erected the next day and Lax s faith As Denise Levertov has said the radiant security of Lax s faith appears in his work as a serenity of tone The Poetry of Susan Howe W. Montgomery,2010-09-27 The Poetry of Susan Howe provides a comprehensive survey of the major works of one of America s foremost contemporary poets The book describes the relationship between poetic form and the various configurations of history religious thought and authority in Howe s writing Will Montgomery argues that her highly opaque texts reflect the resistance that the past offers to contemporary investigation Addressing lyric literary history collage and visual poetics The Poetry of Susan Howe is a lucid and persuasive investigation of the volatile movements of this extraordinary body of work Strategies of Silence Moy McCrory,Simon Heywood,2021-02-25 This unique book takes silence as its central concept and questions the range of meanings and values which inform the idea as it impinges on the creative process and its content and contexts The thematic core of silence allows a consideration of silencing and silence as opposite ends of a spectrum one shutting down the other enabling and opening up As a multidisciplinary collection of essays derived from the teaching and implementation of Creative Writing at university level the contributors consider silence as strategic both through the need for silence and as something which compels resistance They explore how writing has employed images and tropes of silence in the past and used silence and gaps technically In considering marginalised and forgotten voices this book shows how writers bring their diverse range of backgrounds and experience to work with and against silence in Creative Writing Studies The first theoretical work on silence in Creative Writing this field shifting book is an essential read for both practitioners and students of Creative Writing at the higher education level Encyclopedia of Catholic Literature Mary R. Reichardt,2004 The Catholic faith has inspired some of the world s greatest creative works and has been a powerful force in history from the Roman Empire to the present Catholic writers reflect their heritage in their works and generations of readers have continued to appreciate the Catholic literary tradition Many works by Catholic writers hold a high place in the literary canon and have exerted a tremendous cultural and political influence Still others continue to be widely read by contemporary readers and quietly shape modern society Some works too reflect the conflicts of the Catholic Church in the 21st century and capture the struggles of individual Catholics in a secular society This encyclopedia covers the vast riches of the Catholic literary tradition from its origins to the present day Included are substantial entries on more than 70 major works from around the world A special effort has been made to cover women writers and writers of diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds whose works reflect the many dimensions of the Catholic experience The encyclopedia provides entries on such writers and works as St Augustine's Confessions Catherine of Siena's Dialogue Dante's The Divine Comedy Sandra Cisneros's The House on Mango Street J R R Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings and Muriel Spark's Memento Mori Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the writer a plot summary of a major work an extended critical discussion an overview of the work's critical reception and a selected bibliography The entries give detailed attention to particular works and explore their relation to Catholic thought The encyclopedia concludes with a selected general bibliography
