Reel Women Jane Sloan,2007-03-26 In the last several decades the number of films featuring female protagonists has increased significantly Many of these films reflect the vast cultural and sociological changes that have taken place since the early 1960s highlighting not only a wide spectrum of female characters depicted onscreen but the creative work of women behind the camera as well In Reel Women An International Directory of Contemporary Feature Films about Women media librarian Jane Sloan has assembled an impressive list of more than 2400 films_from nearly 100 countries_that feature female protagonists Each entry includes a brief description of the film and cites key artistic personnel particularly female directors producers and screenwriters involved in its production Reel Women also contains a critical survey in which Sloan charts the changes women have undergone both on screen and off as moviemaking and audience sensibilities have evolved in the last forty plus years Listing many more films on the subject of women than can be found in any other source this reference brings together important titles from area studies and genre markets along with titles associated with women s cinema and feminist film In addition to title and actor indexes the book contains a subject index that provides detailed access to place names historical characters time periods and storylines as well as the backgrounds _religious racial and ethnic_ of the main characters This directory is an ideal reference tool for researchers studying the evolution of female characters in films around the world from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe It is also a resource for casual viewers who are looking for films that reflect the diversity of women s roles that can be found in independent and national cinemas as well as commercial blockbusters

Women Willing to Fight Silke Andris, Ursula K. Frederick, 2009-01-23 Women Willing to Fight is a collection of essays that explores the presence of the fighting woman in contemporary Hollywood cinema Drawn from a variety of genres the authors examine the changing role image and position of this figure in film over recent decades The increasing dominance of this character and her repositioning as a protagonist reinvigorates discussion concerning the dynamics of film narrative and spectacle Each contribution takes as its focus a central character from the Hollywood blockbuster era examining in detail the motivations and implications of the fighting female In doing so the collection raises significant questions about the place of the fighting woman in contemporary media and the relationships she forges on and off screen With a strong appreciation of the mixed messages inherent in images of fighting women Women Willing to Fight seeks to draw attention to the embodied forms physical intellectual and emotional through which female fighters are represented The anthology places particular emphasis on the emergence of the physically empowered woman a character for whom the body has become a weapon and a target While early cinematic representations allowed women to voice their fury and frustration today s female fighters not only speak up but muscle up Putting aside the supernatural powers of many action heroines this volume focuses on the kinds of fighting skills abilities and desires that are engendered in characterisations of mortal women To this end the volume implicitly addresses complex and cross cultural notions of extra ordinary power By examining the embodied arsenal that these characters possess and develop through training conditioning and life experience it considers the representation of motivation and metamorphoses into the fighting woman how a woman fights holds implicit meaning and inevitably urges us to consider why and what she is fighting for

Born in Flames Howard Hampton, 2007-01-15 Twenty years as an outsider scouring the underbelly of American culture has made Howard Hampton a uniquely hard nosed guide to the heart of pop darkness Bridging the fatalistic intensely charged space between Apocalypse Now Redux and Nirvana s Smells Like Teen Spirit his writing breaks down barriers of ignorance and arrogance that have segregated art forms from each other and often from the world at large In the freewheeling spirit of Pauline Kael Lester Bangs and Manny Farber Hampton calls up the extremist underground tendencies and archaic forces simmering beneath the surface of popular forms Ranging from the kinetic poetry of Hong Kong cinema and the neo New Wave energy of Irma Vep to the punk heroines of Sleater Kinney and Ghost World Born in Flames plays odd couples off one another pitting Natural Born Killers against Forrest Gump contrasting Jean Luc Godard with Steven Spielberg defending David Lynch against aesthetic ideologues invoking The Curse of the Mekons against Fredric Jameson s Postmodernism and introducing D H Lawrence to Buffy the Vampire Slayer We are born in flames sang the incandescent Lora Logic and here those flames are a source of illumination as well as destruction warmth as well as consumption From the scorched earth works of action movie provocateurs Seijun Suzuki and Sam Peckinpah to the cargo cult soundscapes of Pere Ubu and the Czech dissidents Plastic People of the Universe Born in Flames is a headlong plunge into the passions and disruptive power of art

Reel Knockouts Martha McCaughey, Neal King, 2010-01-01 When Thelma and Louise outfought the men who had tormented them women across America discovered what male fans of action movies have long known the empowering rush of movie violence Yet the duo's escapades also provoked censure across a wide range of viewers from conservatives who felt threatened by the up ending of women's traditional roles to feminists who saw the pair's use of male style violence as yet another instance of women's co-optation by the patriarchy In the first book length study of violent women in movies Reel Knockouts makes feminist sense of violent women in films from Hollywood to Hong Kong from top grossing to direct to video and from cop action movies to X rated skin flicks Contributors from a variety of disciplines analyze violent women's respective places in the history of cinema in the lives of viewers and in the feminist response to male violence against women The essays in part one Genre Films turn to film cycles in which violent women have routinely appeared The essays in part two New Bonds and New Communities analyze movies singly or in pairs to determine how women's movie brutality fosters solidarity amongst the characters or their audiences All of the contributions look at films not simply in terms of whether they properly represent women or feminist principles but also as texts with social contexts and possible uses in the re-construction of masculinity and femininity her childhood best friend and San Francisco's most beloved superheroine. She's great at her job, blending into the background, handling her boss's epic diva tantrums and getting demon blood out of leather pants. Unfortunately, she's not nearly as together when it comes to running her own life, standing up for herself or raising her tempestuous teenage sister, Bea. But everything changes when Evie's forced to pose as her glamorous boss for one night, and her darkest secret comes out: she has powers, too. Now it's up to her to contend with murderous cupcakes, nosy gossip bloggers, and supernatural karaoke battles, all while juggling unexpected romance and Aveda's increasingly outrageous demands. And when a larger threat emerges, Evie must finally take charge and become a superheroine in her own right or see her city fall to a full-on demonic invasion.
