Six Chicks 2005 Calendar:

Gamelan Girls Sonja Lynn Downing, 2019-10-16 In recent years girls and mixed gender ensembles have challenged the tradition of male dominated gamelan performance The change heralds a fundamental shift in how Balinese think about gender roles and the gender behavior taught in children s music education It also makes visible a national reorganization of the arts taking place within debates over issues like women s rights and cultural preservation Sonja Lynn Downing draws on over a decade of immersive ethnographic work to analyze the ways Balinese musical practices have influenced the processes behind these dramatic changes As Downing shows girls and young women assert their agency within the gamelan learning process to challenge entrenched notions of performance and gender One dramatic result is the creation of new combinations of femininity musicality and Balinese identity that resist messages about gendered behavior from the Indonesian nation state and beyond Such experimentation expands the accepted gender aesthetics of gamelan performance but also sparks new understanding of the role children can and do play in ongoing debates about identity and power

Sexual Violence at Canadian Universities Elizabeth Quinlan, Andrea Quinlan, Curtis Fogel, Gail Taylor, 2017-08-13 At least one in four women attending college or university will be sexually assaulted by the time they graduate Beyond this staggering statistic recent media coverage of rape chants at Saint Mary s University misogynistic Facebook posts from Dalhousie University s dental school and high profile incidents of sexual violence at other Canadian universities point to a widespread culture of rape on university campuses and reveal universities failure to address sexual violence As university administrations are called to task for their cover ups and misguided responses a national conversation has opened about the need to address this pressing social problem This book takes up the topic of sexual violence on campus and explores its causes and consequences as well as strategies for its elimination Drawing together original case studies empirical research and theoretical writing from scholars and community and campus activists this interdisciplinary collection charts the costs of campus sexual violence on students and university communities the efficacy of existing university sexual assault policies and institutional responses and historical and contemporary forms of activism associated with campus sexual violence
