Textual Confrontations Comparative Readings In Latin American Literature:

Textual Confrontations Alfred J. Mac Adam, 1987-03 In this masterful experiment in truly comparative literary criticism Alfred J Mac Adam establishes Latin America's place in the Western literary tradition By juxtaposing Latin American and Anglo American texts he shows how Latin American literature has gone beyond the context of Hispanic letters to borrow from exploit and finally extend the Western tradition Mac Adam describes the changes that have taken place in Latin American literature since the time of Modernismo roughly 1880 1920 when Spanish American writers tried to update their literary language by imitating foreign mostly French literature Since then as he demonstrates Latin American writing has achieved a pioneering status by means of a different kind of imitation parody whereby it gives back to the former centers of Western culture their own writing now distorted and reshaped into something new

Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America Sophia A. McClennen, Earl E. Fitz, 2004 The genesis of Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America stems from the contributors conviction that given its vitality and excellence Latin American literature deserves a more prominent place in comparative literature publications curricula and disciplinary discussions The editors introduce the volume by first arguing that there still exists in some quarters a lingering bias against literature written in Spanish and Portuguese Secondly the authors assert that by embracing Latin American literature and culture more enthusiastically comparative literature would find itself reinvigorated placed into productive discourse with a host of issues languages literatures and cultures that have too long been paid scant academic attention Following an introduction by the editors the volume contains papers by Gene H Bell Villada on the question of canon by Gordon Brotherston and Lucia de S on the First Peoples of the Americas and their literature by Elizabeth Coonrod Mart nez on the Latin American novel of the 1920s by Rom n de la Campa on Latin American Studies by Earl E Fitz on Spanish American and Brazilian literature by Roberto Gonz lez Echevarr a on Latin American and comparative literature by Sophia A McClennen on comparative literature and Latin American Studies by Alberto Moreiras on Borges by Julio Ortega on the critical debate about Latin American cultural studies by Christina Marie Tourino on Cuban Americas in New York City by Mario J Vald s on the comparative history of literary cultures in Latin America and by Lois Parkinson Zamora on comparative literature and globalization The volume also contains a bibliography of scholarship in comparative Latin American culture and literature and biographical abstracts of the contributors to the volume

The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel's history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel Garc a M rquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation

The Literatures of Spanish America and Brazil Earl E. Fitz, 2025-09-02 Charting the twentieth century course of the literature of the Americas The second volume of Earl E Fitz's magisterial survey of the field The Literatures of Spanish America and Brazil The Twentieth Century analyzes Spanish and Portuguese language writing throughout South and Central America as well as in the United States and Canada where it expanded and flourished over the course of the century Fitz argues that Spanish American and Brazilian literatures should be treated as two sides of the same coin together forging a hemispheric identity as new literary aesthetics and political crises swept through the Americas Fitz takes readers on a comparative journey analyzing writers such as Octavio Paz and Juan Rulfo from Mexico Julia de Burgos and Luis Pal's Matos from Puerto Rico Jorge Luis Borges and Victoria Ocampo from Argentina and Mário de Andrade and Patrícia Galvão from Brazil among many others to inspire a more thoroughly integrated understanding of the literature of the Americas Look Away! Jon Smith, Deborah Cohn, 2004-07-21 Examines what happens to our paradigms of the American south if we understand the south hemispherically to include Latin America and the Caribbean

Critical Latin American and Latino Studies Juan Poblete, 2003 This book brings together some of the most prominent scholars working across the spectrum of Latin American and Latino studies to explore their changing intellectual undertaking in relation to global processes of change Critical Latin American and Latino Studies identifies the challenges and possibilities of more politically engaged and theoretically critical modes of scholarly practice One objective is to provide a brief critical history of the study of various Latin American cultures Latino Chicano Puerto Rican among others But these essays also serve to assess the roles of ethnic and area studies in light of changing scholarly trends from emphases on gender and sexuality to a focus on postcoloniality and globalization The result is an important contribution to current debates on the conditions of contemporary knowledge production Book jacket

The Supernatural in Short Fiction of the Americas Dana Del George, 2001-08-30 The continuing cultural encounters of the Americas between European and indigenous cultures and between scientific materialism and premodern supernaturalism have originated new narrative forms While supernatural short fiction of the Americas belongs to the broad category of the fantastic which is generally approached synchronically reading audiences of the past 200 years have shifted their beliefs about the supernatural several times While nineteenth century readers understood science as real and the supernatural as imaginary modern audiences recognize both as inaccurate a shift which allows authors of supernatural fiction to celebrate premodern indigenous beliefs which were once disdained by a materialist culture This book situates supernatural short fiction of the Americas within the changing cultural and epistemological contexts of the last 200 years and explores how authors have drawn upon a wealth of indigenous traditions The book begins with a discussion of theories of the supernatural and the fantastic It then looks at some of the first encounters of European and Native American supernatural beliefs and points to the common elements of these early traditions The volume next focuses on American literature of the nineteenth century which has a complex fusion of materialist biases and metaphysical fascinations The final portion of the book gives greater attention to Spanish American literature and the blending of the supernatural with attitudes of nostalgia and uncertainty

Machado de Assis and Narrative Theory Earl E. Fitz, 2019-06-05 This book makes the argument that Machado de Assis hailed as one of Latin American literature's greatest writers was also a major theoretician of the modern novel form Steeped in the works of Western literature and an imaginative reader of French Symbolist poetry Machado creates between 1880 and 1908 a new narrative one that will presage the groundbreaking theories of Swiss linguist Ferdinand de Saussure by showing how even the language of narrative cannot escape being elusive and ambiguous in terms of meaning It is from this discovery about the nature of language as a self-referential semiotic system that Machado crafts his new narrative Long celebrated in Brazil as a dazzlingly original writer Machado has struggled to gain respect and attention outside the Luso-Brazilian ken He is the epitome of the outsider or marginal the iconoclastic and wildly innovative genius who hails from a culture rarely studied in the Western literary hierarchy and so consigned to the status of eccentric Had the Brazilian master written not in Portuguese but English French or German he would today be regarded as one of the true exemplars of the modern novel in expression as well as in theory Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

The Evolution of Literature in the Americas Earl E. Fitz, 2025-03-31 This book offers a systematic and comparative history of the evolution of literature in the Americas from the beginning to the present day It begins with an introduction that assesses the development of the field and then proceeds to a chapter on the literature of Pre-Columbian and indigenous America It then moves forward chronologically from the arrival of the Europeans beginning in 1492 to the year 2026 Including indigenous literature the other American literatures represented in the book are those of Canada both Francophone and Anglophone the United States the Caribbean Francophone and Anglophone Spanish America and Brazil Not every book ever written in the Americas is included of course only those that in the author's estimation offer some valid point of comparison with other American literary cultures These points of comparison include issues of theme genre literary periods literature and other disciplines such as history art music or politics cases of influence and reception and translation The book's emphasis is on viewing American literature from a hemispheric and comparative lens

Acts of Narrative Resistance Laura J. Beard, 2009-10-01 This exploration of women's autobiographical writings in the Americas focuses on three specific genres testimonio metafiction and the family saga as the story of a nation What makes Laura J. Beard's work distinctive is her pairing of readings of life narratives by women from different countries and traditions Her section on metafiction focuses on works by Helena Parente Cunha of Brazil and Luisa Futoranksy of Argentina the family sagas explored are by Ana Mar a Shua and N lida Pi on of Argentina and Brazil respectively and the section on testimonio highlights narratives by Lee Maracle and Shirley Sterling from different Indigenous nations in British Columbia In these texts Beard terms genres of resistance women resist the cultural definitions imposed upon them in an effort to speak and name their own experiences The author situates her work in the context of not only other feminist studies of women s autobiographies but also the continuing study of inter American literature that is demanding more comparative and cross cultural approaches Acts of Narrative Resistance addresses prominent issues in the fields of autobiography comparative literature and women s studies and in inter American Latin American and Native American studies
