Thasos And Ohio:

Thasos and Ohio Guy Davenport, 1985 These selections from Guy Davenport's books and publications in periodicals show the extent of what he calls his literary janitorial services Guy Davenport and James Laughlin Guy Davenport, James Laughlin, 2007 Still with his life as entwined as it was with New Directions Laughlin speaks often and interestingly about some of the giants of the modern period most often Ezra Pound in whose work Davenport had a deep interest The most distinct aspect of their correspondence stems from the fact that although Laughlin ended up publishing some of Davenport's work their friendship was the primary force behind their letters More than simply detailing an author publisher relationship these letters depict two fine minds educating and supporting each other in the service of literature Jacket The Cardiff Team Guy Davenport, 1996-11 The Poetry of Derek Mahon Hugh Haughton, 2010-10-21 Derek Mahon is one of the leading poets of his time both in Ireland and beyond famously offering a perspective that is displaced from as much as grounded in his native country From prodigious beginnings to prolific maturity he has been through thick and thin through troubled times and other a writer profoundly committed to the art of poetry and the craft of making verse He has also been no less a committed reviser of his work believing the poem to be more than a record in verse but a work of art never finished This virtuoso study by Hugh Haughton provides the most comprehensive account imaginable of Mahon's oeuvre Haughton's brilliant writing always serves and illuminates the poetry yielding extraordinary insights on almost every page The poetry its revisions and reception are the subject here but so thorough is the approach that what is offered also amounts indirectly to an intellectual biography of the poet and with it an account of Northern Irish poetry vital to our understanding of the times Postmodern Approaches to the Short Story Farhat Iftekharudin, Joseph Boyden, Joseph Longo, Mary Rohrberger, 2003-03-30 Postmodernism as a mode of the contemporary short story has been clearly established and recognized by short story theorists But postmodern theory as pervasive as it has become among academics in the last half century has scarcely been applied to the short story genre in particular Many contemporary scholars nonetheless are currently making use of certain postmodern thematic approaches to help them determine meanings of particular short stories T Short story theory began with Edgar Allan Poe's review of Twice Told Tales a collection of stories by his contemporary Nathaniel Hawthorne But theoretical discussions of the short story languished until modernism and the new criticism provided impetus for further development Surprisingly though the next large critical movement postmodernism failed to address the short story as a genre But while there is little postmodern theory concerning the short story contemporary scholars have used certain postmodern critical approaches to help determine meaning This book demonstrates the effect of postmodern theory on the study of the short story genre The expert contributors to this volume examine such topics as genre and form the role of the reader cultural and ethnic diversity and feminist perspectives on the short story In doing so they apply postmodern theoretical approaches to international short stories be they in the traditional mode the modern mode or the postmodern mode The volume looks at fiction by Edith Wharton Henry James Katherine Mansfield and other authors and at Iranian short fiction the postcolonial short story the fantastic in short fiction and other subjects The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture M. Thomas Inge, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature theoretical categories such as regionalism the southern gothic and agrarianism and themes in southern writing such as food religion and sexuality Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists playwrights poets and critics Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship The Hunter Gracchus Guy Davenport, 1997-09-01 These essays cover a range of topics including art and architecture religion and literature in a collage of ideas commentary and criticism from snake handling to Wallace Stevens Guy Davenport Andre Furlani, 2007-07-20 Guy Davenport 1927-2005 an American writer of fiction poetry criticism and essays a translator painter intellectual and teacher brought a breadth and depth of knowledge to his pursuits that few other writers could approach let alone appraise In Andre Furlani this twentieth century American master has finally found an apt critical reader In this first sustained critical study of Davenport Furlani elucidates the depths of Davenport's fiction and its poetic precedents brings a rare understanding to the author's reworking of twentieth century literature and intellectual history and offers unusual insight into his compositional technique Furlani explores key themes across the spectrum of Davenport's fiction pastoral utopia twentieth century dystopia sexual ethics the mythologizing of childhood the inseparability of the archaic and the modern and a celebration of the union of sophia eros and poesia Whether Davenport's view of art and the cosmos should be called postmodern is a question that Furlani considers closely offering finally a new aesthetic for this American original who in these pages at last receives the thorough and meticulous attention he has long merited The Guy Davenport Reader Guy Davenport, 2013-07-01 The difference between the Parthenon and the World Trade Center between a French wine glass and a German beer mug between Bach and John Philip Sousa between Sophocles and Shakespeare between a bicycle and a horse though explicable by historical moment necessity and destiny is before all else a difference of imagination The imagination is like the drunk man who has lost his watch and must get drunk again to find it It is as intimate as speech and custom and to trace its ways we need to re-educate our eyes Guy Davenport Modernism spawned the greatest explosion of art architecture literature painting music and dance of any era since the Renaissance In its long unfolding from Yeats Pound and Eliot to Picasso and Matisse from Diaghilev and Balanchine to Cunningham and Stravinsky and Cage the work of Modernism has provided the cultural vocabulary of our time One of the last pure Modernists Guy Davenport was perhaps the finest stylist and most protean craftsman of his generation Publishing more than two dozen books of fiction essays poetry and translations over a career of more than forty years he was awarded a MacArthur Fellowship in 1990 In poetry and prose Davenport drew upon the most archaic and the most modern of influences to create what he called assemblages lush experiments that often defy classification Woven throughout is a radical and coherent philosophy of desire design and human happiness But never before has Davenport s fiction nonfiction poetry and translations been collected together in one compendium Eight years after his death The Guy Davenport Reader offers the first true introduction to the far ranging work of this neglected genius
