Ezekiel's Hierarchical World Stephen L. Cook, Corrine L. Patton, 2004 Can we live with the God of Ezekiel Can we relate to a God who has established a multilayered hierarchy that separates the divine from the human who creates boundaries that segregate people from the temple the priesthood and the glory of the Lord In contrast to those who suggest that Ezekiel should no longer be read as an authoritative part of the canon the essays in this volume engage Ezekiel's hierarchical world directly neither dismissing it out of hand nor accepting it uncritically By wedding theological interest and reflection with serious biblical exegesis and criticism this work helps readers to understand Ezekiel's hierarchical theology especially the book's views on creation priesthood and land It thus equips readers to form their own evaluations of the relevance of Ezekiel's theology for today Contributors include Daniel I. Block Keith Carley Stephen L. Cook Kathryn Pfisterer Darrin M. Duguid Friedrich Fechter Julie Galambush Norman Habel Risa Levitt Kohn Corrine L. Patton David L. Petersen Baruch J. Schwartz Daniel L. Smith Christopher and Steven Shawn Tuell Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org

Believing in a Revealing God Gabriel Moran, 2016-12-09 What is faith Is it a thing one has or a human activity What is revelation Is it a deposit of truths in the past or God's action in the present These questions are addressed by renowned religious educator Gabriel Moran who draws upon biblical and theological traditions set within today's interreligious dialogue A church of moral and liturgical activity in relation to a revealing God is the needed response to both a dismissal of religion and apocalyptic violence in its name The future role of Christianity in the world and in individual lives may well hang in the balance The Christian ideas of faith and revelation will either be the chief obstacle to dialogue with the contemporary world or else the main foundation to a Christian spiritual life that can give substance and direction to religious searching Gabriel Moran is a professor in the Department of Humanities and the Social Sciences at New York University He is widely credited with reshaping the field of religious education in the United States and beyond Moran is author of twenty books on religion and education including Religious Education as a Second Language Both Sides The Story of Revelation and most recently Speaking of Teaching Lessons from History Yves Congar's Theology of the Holy Spirit Elizabeth Teresa Groppe,2004-01-15 The French Dominican theologian Yves Congar is recognized by many as the most important Roman Catholic ecclesiologist of the 20th century yet there are few works on him in English Congar's pneumatology argues Groppe can enrich various ongoing theological discussions The Active Participation of the Faithful in the Eucharist on the Basis of Common Priesthood Stella Adamma Nneji,2018-06-15 One of the significant points of the Second Vatican Council is its emphasis on the status of the lay faithful in the church which includes active participation in the life of faith The council spoke of the active participation of all the faithful in liturgical celebrations on the basis of the common priesthood of the faithful which is conferred during baptism and through which every believer shares in the priestly kingly and prophetic offices of Christ In this book Stella Nneji develops an ecclesiological critical reflection on the teaching of the Second Vatican Council with regard to active participation Focusing especially on the church as people of God Nneji shows how the idea of participation is not merely a passive action but an active one Based on the ecclesiological reflection on the church as people of God and its relevance for active participation she maintains that Vatican II's vision on active participation is relevant to the upbuilding of the body of Christ church This vision integrates a critical thinking especially regarding those places where the implementation of Vatican II's teachings seems difficult An Unfinished Council Richard R. Gaillardetz,2015-10-28 The Second Vatican Council has become an indispensable reference point for understanding Roman Catholicism today Yet in spite of its impact Vatican II was in many ways an unfinished council The council bishops were able to establish key pillars in the construction of a new vision for the church of our time but for various reasons they were not able to draw those pillars together into a coherent unified structure This volume describes both the council's building project itself and the challenges facing the church today if we are to complete the project begun fifty years ago Confronting the Demon Gerald A. Arbuckle,2003 Bullying is not something confined to school children It is a widespread abuse found in families workplaces organizations including churches and beyond Confronting the Demon focuses on the nature and types of contemporary bullying and what the Christian Scriptures advise to prevent it Bullying is a quality of most forms of violence including racial religious and sex based discrimination sexual physical and psychological abuse persecution and terrorism This book focuses on such contemporary examples as the 2001 terrorist attacks hate crimes around the world sexual abuse particularly among the churches and cultures which promote bullying Questions at the end of each chapter help people examine their own vulnerability to the vice of bullying and relate the context of its nature meaning and power to their own lives Chapters are Adult Bullying Definition and Types Bullies and Victims Cultures of Bullying and A Gospel Response Gerald A Arbuckle SM PhD is the co director of Refounding and Pastoral Research Unit Sydney Australia He is the author of From Chaos to Mission Refounding Religious Life Formation Healthcare Ministry Refounding the Mission in Tumultuous Times and Violence Society and the Church published by Liturgical Press

Peacemaking and the Canon Law of the Catholic Church Charles Reid, Jr., 2023-12-21 This volume unites three disparate strands of historical and legal experience Nearly from its beginning the Catholic Church has sought to promote peace among warring parties and among private litigants The volume explores three vehicles the Church has used to promote peace papal diplomacy of international disputes both medieval and contemporary the arbitration of disputes among litigants and the use of the tools of reconciliation to bring about rapprochement between ecclesiastical superiors and those subject to their authority The book concludes with an appendix exploring a wide variety of hypothetical yet plausible scenarios in which the Church might use its good offices to repair breaches among persons and nations
