Author Vincent Havelund's new epic work of fiction explores how Earth's development has been intertwined with that of a distant planet called Orbsey. It all begins in the year 1 and races to its conclusion in the twenty-fourth century. As the people of Earth looked to the heavens in search of others, the people of Orbsey were doing more than just looking; they were planning. In this first book of the series, the adventure begins when two cultures, two peoples, two worlds meet at long last. Thanks to their mastery of fourth-dimensional travel, explorers from Orbsey reach Earth, and neither planet will ever be the same. Humanity is still a young and developing race in the year 1. To the visitors, humanity is a barbaric and wild race. What must humanity think of their new guests? In rural China, a bright, ambitious young girl by the name of Sun Li dreams of a life of fulfillment and even love. But when she begins to dream of a long life of 285 years on a distant planet, she could never have imagined that what appeared to be a dream was actually memories of a real life lived on Orbsey. Sun Li is not alone. She is one of countless humans who would be integrated into Orbsien society over the centuries, while many chose to stay, some did return to Earth. This is their story, and the first installment of The Star Series.

Deep-Sky Companions: The Caldwell Objects Stephen James O'Meara, 2016-09-26. The Caldwell Catalogue, compiled by the late Sir Patrick Moore, 1923-2012, has delighted amateur astronomers worldwide since its publication in 1995. Twenty years on, Stephen James O'Meara revisits his guide to these 109 deep-sky delights, breathing new life into them and the 20 additional observing targets included as an appendix. This second edition retains O'Meara's detailed visual descriptions and sketches, accompanied by stunning new images taken by amateur photographer Mario Motta and observations by Magda Streicher. The astrophysical descriptions have been updated to account for the many advances in our understanding of the objects, not least due to an armada of space-borne observatories and the new technologies used in large ground-based telescopes. Ideal for observers who have completed the Messier objects and are looking for their next challenge, Deep Sky Companions: The Caldwell Objects is a fitting tribute from a renowned visual observer to one of astronomy's most famous personalities. The Complete Farmer, 1769.

The Passive Eye Branka Arsić, 2003. The Passive Eye is a revolutionary and historically rich account of Berkeley's theory of vision. In this formidable work, the author considers the theory of the embodied subject and its passions in light of a highly dynamic conception of infinity. Arsić shows the profound affinities between Berkeley and Spinoza and offers a highly textual reading of Berkeley on the concept of an exhausted subjectivity. The author begins by following the Renaissance universe of vision, particularly the paradoxical, elusive nature of mirrors, then shows how this conception of vision was translated into the optical devices and in what way the various ways of deception could be conceived. Reading Berkeley against the backdrop of competing theories in relation to Leibniz, Spinoza, Newton, Malebranche, Hume, Locke, Molyneux, and others, this book gives a meticulous historic reconstruction of Berkeley's theory. This excellent scholarly work presents Berkeley's theory in a new and radical light. The book, presented in three parts, begins by presenting the conceptions of vision prior to Berkeley's intervention. In the second part, the author moves through a careful study of Descartes' theory of vision to arrive at Berkeley. The third part addresses the author's version of Berkeley in which the eye and the image become inseparable due to the collapse of the universe of representation. The problem of vision becomes not that of representation but of presentation. Through an erudite historic reading of Berkeley's theory and astute comparative assessments the author uncovers Berkeley's place as a contemporary theoretician corresponding with such thinkers as Deleuze, Lacan, Foucault, and Derrida. DON'T FALL ASLEEP AT THE HELM - ADVENT - BOOKS I, II, AND III Caitlin Elizabeth Demery, 2024-04-19. A threat is found to mankind. For time has laid itself upon the man. Time has laid itself upon the man in that there are changes. Such changes have caused the souls of men to be placed to a time press. Like the time piece that is flipped and thus placed into motion will the sand pieces fall in accordance to the laws assigned to it. As the sand pieces are so has the man become. By what consideration is so to such sand pieces will that man proceed. Though the man observes the falling of sand pieces there is confusion. There is confusion for mankind is found wanting in reference to what measures he declares is so. Though a world presents with law the many are found apart from truthfulness. Yes mankind is unable to tell of the diminishing of his soul's condition. Man is of inability to tell of accuracy to his presenting world. Such inability has caused great confusion. Of what time is so does a world present as rearranged displaying strange ordinances. Such ordinances confusion displays itself in themes reoccurring arrangements displaying obscure realities. If such arrangements do not change in that the man does not discover how to live what perceived ordinances are so will kill him. Can the man determine truth from untruth as to depict that which is so. Is the man able to do such things. Is the man able to overcome such themes. Can he figure out how to live. Join the great expedition presenting to mankind on the discord of life's meaning through the overlying themes of the life of Caitlin Elizabeth Demery to discover how to live. Challenge life's meaning through a series of short prompts. Don't Fall Asleep at The Helm ADVENT includes Books I, II, and III of the Don't Fall Asleep at The Helm series. It is recommended to purchase ADVENT to receive all books currently in the Don't Fall Asleep at The Helm Series. The Gardener's Guide to Weather and Climate Michael Allaby, 2015-05-19. All gardeners are at the whim of Mother Nature and so are our plants. Whether it's coping with extreme drought or record breaking snow fall gardeners and gardens across the country are fighting against the elements.
